HARRIETT TRENCHARD

BY

HEROLD W. HEIN

PREFACE

The Trenchard family history was a pleasure to write. Starting with my being given Harriett Trenchard's gold watch by my mother when I was married and throughout the writing of the Son and Dowen histories the name kept reappearing. I suppose it was only natural that material kept accumulating, the movement of various members of this family into the West was the same as thousands of other early journeys into new unsettled country.

My mother, born Jessenyn Louise Sonn was a granddaughter of Harriett Trenchard, and left me some family tradition, some wrong, but enough correct to give me a start. I was also fortunate in being given a few Trenchard tintypes and many related family photographs as well as my mother's sister's D. A. N. papers and records of her family.

My first and deepest debt, therefore, is to my mother, next is to my aunt, the late Mrs. Harriett "Bon" Fleming and then I must list the following, all of whom have helped me in various ways: Mrs. Viola "Trenchard" Chaite of Manchester, Iowa and her late brother Roy Trenchard, Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Trenchard of DeLand, Illinois, my cousin Mrs. Frances Rose of Largo, Florida, Mrs. Edith Tallmudge of Waukegan, Wis., Mr. Cassius Potter of Cambridge, Wis., Mr. Arthur J. Gruennert, Register of Deeds in Jefferson, who almost locked me in the court house basement vaults late one afternoon, many town historians in New York State, Mrs. Ruth Kornitz and Mrs. Margaret McKowen of the D.A.R. in Milwaukee, Mr. James Trenchard a grand old man of eighty-six years of Penn YAN, Mr. Charles Trenchard of Alcove, and the hundreds of Clerks of Vital Records about the country who searched and sent me copies of Wills, Deeds, Mortgages, Birth and Death and Marriage records, etc.

My thanks must also go to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mletz for driving about the country with me and for his excellent photography.

Finally the experience of receiving so much help from total strangers who one way or another are interested in preserving our families and nations history made my effort worth while to me.

I will always be glad to receive additions and criticisms.

The young lady wondered how the new land would look compared to her native hills and lakes of Steuben County, New York. She had been told by her Uncle William Trenchard that it was rich in untilled soil, there for the young and willing to take and develop.

Now as the wagon moved and rolled along doubts began to cross her mind. Was she able to be a frontier partner of some yet unknown husband? Could she help in the fields, cook and raise his children? Would there be a church and neighbors near? It was the year 1840 and the summer sun was strong, strong also were the sons of her Uncle as they rode along near the huge wagon hunting the route that was straight and even as they now moved across Indiana soon to enter Illinois and then northward to the Territory of Wisconsin.

They camped at Chicago one night and walking into the new and bustling town happened to see Capt. Erasmus Bowen unload his steamer full of goods from Buffalo.

Now they followed the Indian trail along the high cliff of Michigan Lake and were in what in two years would be the new state of Wisconsin.

Harriett Trenchard stayed with her Uncle Bill and Aunt Maria and their many children in what is now the City of Brookfield, Waukesha County, Wisconsin until her marriage to that fine man she found there.

The records in the Waukesha County, Wisconsin Courthouse include her marriage on January 12, 1847 to Peter G. Bowen, the marriage performed at Delafield, Wisconsin by Rev. William Adams, Episcopal of Washetah.

In 1854 Peter bought the old Potter farm on the north shore of Lake Ripley at Cambridge, Wisconsin. Here their only child, Sarah Maria Bowen, was born that year. Harriett "Trenchard" Bowen died there in 1856 at the age of 31 years and 6 months.

INTRODUCTION

Various approaches were considered in writing this family history, which from the time of George Trenchard's entry into America until today is connected by events with our countries founding and development.

Some branches of my Trenchard family may not have come to my searching and some incidents of their lives would be unknown to me. Also I have endeavored to follow the track of my line and have given much more space to the immediate families. I make small apology as I am not a professional writer and have no aspirations of acquiring a literary reputation from this manuscript.

The Trenchards originally European, came into England with the invasion in 1066 A.D. It is extremely fortunate that a home was built in England during the dark ages and the family continued on here for over four hundred years. By the end of this period records were better and the sequence of the family can be more easily followed.

Various branches of the Trenchard family came to America from England at various times. The earliest came into what is now New Jersey and worked for the King. This family gradually spread out into various counties in New Jersey and into Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, some following their minister to his new church. Some then went into New York City and some up the Hudson into Albany County. It was strange to find living descendants of the family today in Albany and Otsego Counties and them not knowing of the other. Also of my mother not knowing of her cousins Roy and Viola Trenchard in Manchester, Iowa.

All branches of the family however had a tradition of early members being knighted, and all branches in the middle west of coming from the east and New York and earlier from New Jersey. Also all branches have said one of the grandparents children that stayed in the east was of the Lindberg Trial Judge Trenchard of New Jersey.

This is an extremely religious family. Many records used were their church records, as where they lived they had close church connections.

It is a proud family. Early members stayed loyal to their king. Later some had Revolutionary service, many had War of 1812 service.

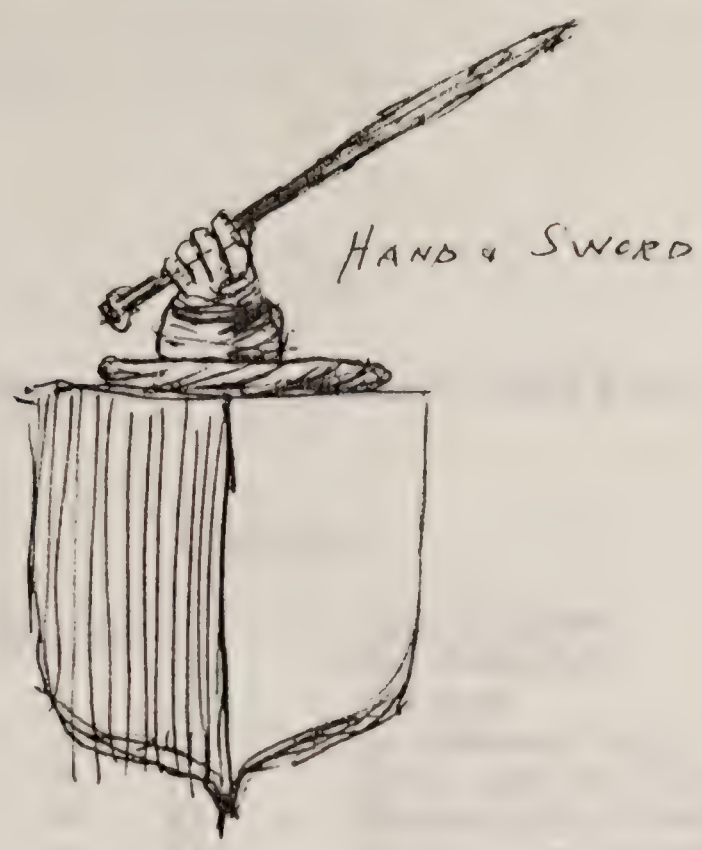

The law seemed the most favorite vocation. The first generations here were attorneys for the king and some in the west in the 1800's went back to Philadelphia and became lawyers.

Medicine was also a choice of life work and art and engraving made others famous, and a Captain Edward Trenchard named his boy Stephen Decatur Trenchard, and this boy became an Admiral.

I am the proud possessor of an old Trenchard Bible, which records many of the family, photostats of these pages are enclosed and in the history you will find many vital records and wills and copies of letters and various historical records, and many copies of those rare old tintypes of Trenchards and related folks.

Chapter I - Olde England

I will not be like one writer who said, "no doubt all my ancestors were famous and remarkable people", and let it go at that but will endeavor to tell something of those I have been able to trace.

The first of the family by name in early history was Raoul de Trenchant a knight of Normandy in Europe. He came to England with William the Conqueror in 1066 A.D. and was at the battle of Hastings. He was born about 1030 A.D. in Normandy and died after 1066 A.D. His name is found on a tombstone close to William the Conqueror, in the Church yard of the village of Iweres near Caen in England. Trenchards were feudal landed families for five hundred years in Hampshire and Dorset and the Isle of Wight.

"The Country Life", a magazine from England dated March 8, 1902 shows six pages of illustrations and descriptions of a castle called "Wolfe-ton House" in Dorset County in England which was built by a Sir Thomas Trenchard, who was born about 1450 A.D. and died in Dorset in 1505 A.D. The Trenchard family lived in Wolfe-ton House for over four hundred years.

The Trenchard's come down from Pagans of the name in Henry the firsts time and from Edward the firsts daughter Elizabeth. The Trenchard and Trenchard lines come from a John Trenchard in the sixteenth century. He was a son of Sir Thomas Trenchard of Wolfe-ton House. This Sir Thomas was high sheriff of the County of Dorset in England.

A very interesting experience was his. One day hearing a strange fleet of ships was off his coast he raced down to the shore on his horse and in amazement saw the Spanish fleet caught in a channel stern and riding at anchor. King Philip of Spain left his huge galleon and coming to shore asked Sir Thomas Trenchard for haven while riders went on to Windsor to tell Henry VII of England. Sir Thomas offered King Philip Wolfe-ton House to stay and here the Spanish ruler and his officers waited a week, host of the Devon sheriff until the invitation came from King Henry to visit him at Windsor. For this visit to Wolfe-ton House the Spanish King sent Thomas Trenchard some fine wood carvings for being a gracious host.

Another Trenchard helped Cromwell at the siege of Corfe Castle, which was the head of resistance in Dorset County. A son John Trenchard, knight, born about 1600 was a member of Parliament for Weymouth and was appointed in 1649 on the Committee to try Charles I. He did not sign the kings death warrant.

Sir John Trenchard at the time of the reign of William III in England was in their department of foreign affairs and had to do with American Colonial matters. Some of his letters to governors of the American Colonies refer to trade and tax matters.

A Sir George Trenchard, Knight of Wolfe-ton House died without children and the house and titles were lost to the Trenchard name. The huge house or Castle was sold and remodelled and today is a row of apartments near Dorchester, England. A sister of this last Trenchard owner of Wolfe-ton Hall married a Sheppard and they had a son, famed in English history as Jack Sheppard the Cat Burglar of Stepney.

Mary Haupt Lewis whose grandparents were Trenchards, wrote me "The Trenchards were originally French but as I understand it some emigrated to England at the time of the Huguenot persecutions."

James B. Trenchard a third cousin of the compiler gives a good account of the first Trenchard to come to America:

History shows that a man by the name of George Trenchard sailed from Deal, England September 5th 1682 and landed at New Castle, Delaware October 24th 1682 in the ship called "Welcome" with William Penn's Company. He was high sheriff here and he married a Miss ----- Hawker. We will refer to him as George (1) Trenchard the first of the name to come to America.

EXPLANATION OF TESTIMONY SUBMITTED, CHIEF OF SERVICE

A. Took an active part in rebellion of the Duke of Monmouth, was the first who conducted him from Lyme to Sedgemoor, and who after the defeat and misfortunes of the Duke decreed himself free from the tyranny and vengeance of the Court of James, while many of his friends and neighbors were sacrificed by the sanguinary Jefferys. Before this unhappy event he possessed lands at Thorncombe at Whitford and in various parts of Devon, which were thereby greatly diminished afterwards to fill up the measure of his misfortunes, part of his very large family were extremely profligate and dissipated nearly the whole of his remaining property. The father of Oliver is believed suffered materially for his warm adherence to the party of Cromwell.

B. A Lieut. in the navy in which service he entered at an early age under the auspices of that great Naval Commander Lord Boscawen, whose friendship he had the honor of professing in the highest degree to his latest hours. He obtained the rank (1793) of Lieut. and died of fever at Hatter Hospital February 12, 1797.

The following is a brief report, according to history showing the TRENCHARD family came from England to America. And how some of the family have developed.

History shows that a man by the name of George Trenchard sailed from Deal England, September 5th 1682 and landed at New Castle, Delaware October 24th 1682 in the ship called "WELCOME" with William Penn's Company. He was referred to as George the 7th. He was high Sheriff, and married a Miss Harker. They had a son born in 1686 who was named George the 6th who was also High Sheriff. He died in 1728. He married a Miss Mary Bender, and they had a son born in 1706 they called George the 5th. He was King's Attorney General under Crown for West New Jersey 1767 to 1773; Surrogate General 1772; He married Mary Sinnickson, daughter of Judge Sinnickson, who was an attorney in 1744 and High Sheriff of Salem County N.J. He died in 1780. They had the following children:

I.	John	born	1743	Died	1823
II	Ourtis	"	1745
III	James	"	1746
IV	George	"	1748	"
V	Thomas	"	1751
VI	Jane	"	1753
VII	Mary	"	1755
VIII	Hannah	"	1758

While we haven't as yet been able to find a record in history showing that John Trenchard born in 1743, and died in 1823 had a son but I have been told by my ancestors he was the father of John Trenchard, born in 1796 and died July 25th 1867 John Trenchard also had a brother Silas and a Sister Charity.

For this brief report we are dealing only with the descendants of John born in 1796 and died July 25th 1868. He was a soldier in the war of 1812. He married Margaret Arnold, a wealthy Farmers daughter from Waterloo, Albany County New York. They had the following children. Harriette - Grattan - Ester - William - Cornelia & (Harrett) - James - and Margaret.

my grandfather

He moved with his family from Westloo, N.Y. in 1822 to Wheeler Steuben County N.Y. There he settled in the forest on unbroken land. He hauled his few household goods and implements on an ox cart a mile and a half farther into the woods, carrying on his back, where he erected himself a log cabin and began to clear a farm. His large family all married and had families of their own.

As I am a descendant of William born in 1819 a son of John born 1796, and in order to keep this report brief, I am going to confine my remarks to William's descendants only, otherwise it would run into a long report. William moved with his father John and family from Westloo, Albany County New York to Wheeler, N.Y. in 1822 when he was only three years old. As he grew to man-hood he married a Miss Mary Peck, a Farmers daughter who lived near Phelps, N.Y. They had the following children:

I-Frank — James Frenchard's father
II-Deloss
III-William
IV-Ida

They all married and had families of their own. The only one I am mentioning herein is Frank's family, as he was my father. He married Elizabeth Maxson, daughter of James B. and Martha Elizabeth Gree of Prattburgh, N.Y. They had the following children:

I-Minnie	b.	June 13th	1868
II-Elizabeth	b.	March 12th	1871 * Living Waverley, N.Y.
III-Frank	b.	Oct. 18th	1873

Chapter II - The Colonists

George (1) Trenchard was born in England in the year 1655 and came with his family to America in 1682 with William Penn's Company. He became High Sheriff for the Crown in what is now Salem County, New Jersey. His wife was a Miss Hawker, first name not recorded. George had brothers and sisters that stayed in England, one being John, a government career man and another was Oliver from whom Sir Hugh Trenchard's line follows. This Oliver Trenchard was born about 1660, married 16 October 1682 and died in England 31 July 1745.

George (1) Trenchard died in Salem Town, New Jersey 18 April 1712. His will does not mention his wife so she had probably died before him. It does mention a son George (2) Trenchard (George 1) who was born in 1680 grew up and married from his church, a Miss Mary Sonder. He followed in his father's footsteps and also became High Sheriff of Salem County in West New Jersey. The compiler's copy of his will is dated 9 December 1728 and it mentions his wife Mary.

George (2) Trenchard had brothers Edward, John and a sister Jane or Joan. Edward was a witness to a will of Mr. A. Woodcut of Maninton, Salem County, New Jersey on the 12th of February 1726 - 7. He is in the will of Samuel Curtis of Monmouth River, Salem County 5 January 1711-2. He was listed in Captain Daniell Runseys Company of Salem County, New Jersey in 1715 as an officer. He was also a witness to a will of John Footit, at Eisenburgh, Salem County in 1719. He was left 40 shillings or plate in the will of his brother George (2) Trenchard 9 December 1728. He is listed in the administrations of the will of Richard Sayre as a bondsman with John Thompson at Salem County, New Jersey February 26, 1739.

John (2) Trenchard (George - 1 -) brother of George (2) Trenchard is in his father's will of April 18, 1712 at Salem Town, New Jersey. This will of his father mentions farms of 370 and 500 acres and the estate inventory totaled £ 167. 14. 6. It is thought some early Frenchard bookplates are by this John Trenchard's hand.

Jane or Joan Trenchard the sister of George (2) Trenchard is listed in the father's will of 5 January 1711-2 and received a house and a farm. She is also in the will of Anne Powell, formerly Ann Curtis of Salem County, New Jersey on 25 September 1716 as were cousins George and Edward. She was a "Friend" or Quaker and she later left money to the Society of Friends.

In his will of 1728 George (2) Trenchard left his wife Mary a house on Bridge Street in Salem, N. J. He left children George (3), John, Mary, Elizabeth and Curtis. These five children were all under 21 years of age at the time of their father's death in 1728. He left the profits of his Plantation on Allaways Creek, annually, to his wife Mary so long as she shall live, and they then to go to the five children. His will also mentions cousins Mary and John Thomson. John (3) Trenchard received land from his father's will after the death of his mother Mary.

This was also the wills order for sisters Mary and Elizabeth and brother Curtis.

George (3) Trenchard (George 2 - 1 -) was born in 1700 or 8 (various records) in Salem County, N. J. He went to school there and later read law and became a busy lawyer of his time. He was the King's Attorney General for West New Jersey in 1767 and became Surrogate General in 1772. He is mentioned as Junior of Lower Penn's Neck on 6 August 1767 and was there and at Salem Town in April of 1766. He was Judge of Salem County, N. J. 5 February 1770 and held other offices military and religious.

He married Mary Jinnickson, daughter of the local Judge Jinnickson who was an attorney at Salem, N. J. in 1744 and the High Sheriff of the County.

George (3) Trenchard died in 1780 leaving the wife Mary and at least eight children: John (4) Trenchard, (George -3 -2 -1 -) born 1743 or 5; Curtis born 1745, was Clerk of Salem County, N. J. in 1778; James b. 1746; George b. 1748; Thomas b. 1751; Jane b. 1753; Mary b. 1755 and Hannah b. 1758.

James B. Trenchard of New York states that while we haven't as yet been able to find a record in history showing that John (4) Trenchard, born in 1743 or 5, and died in 1823 had a son but I have been told by my ancestors he was the father of John Trenchard born in 1790 and died July 25, 1867 or 8. This means the New York Trenchards who were living in Westchester and Albany Counties in 1790 (see census) were from the New Jersey and Pennsylvania family.

The Federal Census of 1850 of Salem County, New Jersey and Albany, Westchester and Otsego Counties in New York have the same family names and the same names within the families. Members of various branches of the family have written me separately, telling of a John Trenchard being knighted, and all know that somehow they were related to the Judge Trenchard of the Lindburgh Trial Case in Farmington, New Jersey. My mother always said her Uncle John Trenchard of Texas was knighted for some reason or other. I cannot find that he was, altho he became very rich in Texas ranch land and other ventures; it probably was an ancestor of his that was knighted. Various Trenchards were knighted throughout history, the last being Sir Hugh Trenchard who ran the Royal Air Force during world war I.

Some of the New York Trenchards went to Philadelphia and became lawyers. Also one of the family that came from Otsego County to Wisconsin and then on to Iowa went to Philadelphia and became a lawyer. This was Edwin H. Trenchard born Manchester, Iowa February 1, 1857. (see his photo trap)

A Reverend Thomas J. Kitts of the Canton Baptist Church in Salem County, N. J. for two years ending in 1820 and then pastor in Philadelphia's Northern Liberty Congregation married members of the same families in both places, suggesting a movement of these New Jersey families to Philadelphia. Later an A. R. Kitts of Fergus Falls, Minnesota married Attorney Charles C. Haupt and Ida Trenchard.

Many New Jersey families went to Albany County, N. Y. and surrounding areas, one being through the will of Samuel Gulliver, this was witnessed July 5, 1750 by George Trenchard and George Trenchard, Jr. of Alloways Creek, Salem County, New Jersey.

Charts of some of the New Jersey branches of the family are enclosed for study. They are many and detailed and only give some of the lines closest to John (4).

This John (4) listed in the Federal Census of 1790 at Fishkill, Albany County, New York is given as John Trencher. This is one of the many spellings of the family name. Others are Trenchard, Trenchard, Trench, Trenchant, Thrasher, Trenchard and Franchard.

One branch of the New Jersey Trenchards, father and son were famous Naval Officers. Captain Edward (5) Trenchard (Curtis -4 George 3 -2 -1 -) was born in Salem County, New Jersey in 1767 and later moved to Brooklyn, New York. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Hon. Joshua Lewis (Senator) and Ann Ayscough on 3 February 1811. Edward Trenchard became Capt. in the United States Navy and in 1805 was Commander of the U. S. S. Constitution. He was at the siege of Tripoli that year and Commanded the U. S. S. Madison in the War of 1812. He died in Brooklyn, N.Y. in 1824 and his widow died in Brooklyn 42 years later in 1866. They had three children; Rebecca Hall Trenchard was married Capt. Henry Grifton U. S. Army and who died April 14, 1855 at Davenport, Iowa; 2 Matilda Sands Trenchard who married Hon. Rodman M. Price; 3 Stephen (C) Decatur Trenchard (Edward - 5 - Curtis 4 - George 3 - 2 - 1 -) born 10 July 1818 at Brooklyn, N.Y., married 1 December 1847 Ann C. C. Barclay who was born in Philadelphia in 1817 daughter of Capt. John Mortimer Barclay U. S. N. and Margaretta his wife. Stephen (C) Decatur Trenchard joined the U. S. Navy and became an officer, fought through the Civil War and in 1875 was made Rear Admiral. His wife Ann died in August 1877 and he died in New York City on 15 November 1883.

Edward (7) Trenchard born 17 August 1850 in Philadelphia, Penn. was the only child of Admiral Stephen Decatur Trenchard and Ann C. C. (Barclay) Trenchard his wife. Edward married Mary Cornelia Stafford on the 11 June 1876 daughter of William B. Stafford President of the North River Savings Bank of N. Y. C.

Edward Trenchard was an artist and engraver and lived and had a studio at 50 Wall Street, New York City. He applied for membership in the Sons of American Revolution in N. Y. C. on July 10, 1893 and became a member until his death in New York City in 1922. Copies of Edwards S.A.R. membership applications are enclosed, as is a chart showing the relationship and telling more about his art career.

The Obituary of the Judge Trenchard of New Jersey who officiated at the Trial of Bruno Hauptmann states: Thomas W. Trenchard - died July 23, 1942. He was 78 years of age, his home was at 816 Riverside Avenue, Trenton, N.J. He was born at Centretown, Salem County, N. J. December 13, 1863, son of William B. and Mario C. Trenchard. He was a Lawyer and moved from Brighton to Trenton in 1911 to be near his Court. He was a member of Sons of the Revolution. He married in November 1892 Miss Harriet A. Manning. She died in 1938.

This Judge Trenchard who handled the "Lindbergh Trial Case" was related to the present New York and Iowa and Illinois Trenchards; all of them saying he was from one of the brothers who stayed in New York State.

Dr. John Franklin Trenchard, M. D. born in New Jersey December 8, 1820 was a son of John Trenchard and Hannah "Pierson" Trenchard. Like quite a few of the family he studied medicine, he going to the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, from where he graduated in June 1847. He ran a drug store and practiced medicine in Philadelphia until his death in 1901, a period of some 54 years of practice. He married at least twice; first to Mary Olmstead who died in the Fall of 1870 and second to Mary Booth who outlived him. A copy of the Doctor's will which is enclosed mentions his widow Mary A. and two daughters Hannah T. and Margaret P., they both being married and having children of their own.

Chapter III - Freedom

John (4) Tranchard (George - 3 - 2 - 1 -) was born 1743 or 5 in Salem County, New Jersey. He removed to Albany County, New York and served in the Revolutionary War. There is no pension or bounty land record of his services as he died in 1823 which was too early for most of them, however, the National Archives furnished a copy of the following: - T - - Weissenfels Regiment, N.Y. Lovies - John Tranchard - appears as shown below on a receipt roll under the following heading: - "So the subscribers do hereby acknowledge to have received of Col. Weissenfels the several sums affixed to our respective names, in Certificates, issued by the Treasurer of this State - - - - - being for services - - - - - in the Regiment of Lovies Commanded by Col. Weissenfels in the year 1781 & 1782" (Revolutionary War) - Roll sworn to by Fred Weissenfels, 6 March 1787 payable to Peter de Witt, received Sept. 4, number 3301, witness John Tranchard & 10 s. 13 d. 4 and another receipt Roll 6 March 1787 payable to John Tranchard received August 27, numbered 3475 witnessed by Samuel Hopkins for 4 s. 1 d. 9 number of record 4, Ripley, copyist.

John Tranchard is listed as head of a family in the first Federal Census taken in 1790 in Fish Kill, Dutchess Co., New York, page 10 as having 1 male under 16, 1 male over 16 and 2 females.

John Tranchard who was a farmer died around 1823 probably at Fishkill, altho he could have removed to Elmira, New York with his sons and died there. No record seems to exist of his wife or of his death and place of burial. It is possible he returned to New Jersey during his old age and died and is buried in Salem County. Three of his children are known; there were probably more.

I can find no other Revolutionary War record of a John Tranchard in New York or New Jersey or Penn. either at the National Archives or the various state archives, neither can I find any record favoring the King. The various lists of Puttches County for or against the American cause do not list any Tranchards. Albany, New York, county and state have no record of death or of a Will or any probate proceedings.

John (5) Tranchard (John 4 - George - 3 - 2 - 1 -) was born in either 1792 or 6 at Monticello, Albany County, New York. The best record of his early life is to be found in his applications for bounty land for service rendered during the war of 1812. Copies of some of these records are enclosed and briefly they state: File Designation, # 55 MS 112300 Receipt No. 2444 - War 1812 - Prattsburgh 10th February 1855 - Dear Sir: The enclosed papers is a renewal of Tranchard's application for bounty lands. His first application was prepared by Mr. D. Shoboll, of Bath, who - never done anything right, Tranchard is a very poor honest man and rendered the services. - A.C. Montgomery.

State of New York, County of Steuben, on this 22nd day of June 1852 - - - personally appeared John Tranchard aged fifty eight years, a resident of Wheeler, Steuben County in the State of New York - private in Company Commanded by Captain Cornelius Van Antwerp in the Regiment of Militia commanded by Col. Farrington in the war with Great Britain, declared by the United States on the 18 June 1812, that he was drafted at Cayuga on or about the first of July A.D. 1812 for the term of six months and continued in actual service atacketts Harbor - - - later he was drafted at Cayuga as a private on about 1st Sept. 1813 or 1814 for six months under Capt. Hiebley, the christian name not recollected in the Regiment of Militia commanded by Col. John Van Borsen, that the Company marched from Cayuga and went on a sloop to Brooklyn where he remained four months then from sickness obtained a permit to return home - John Tranchard

John (5) Trenchard married after the war of 1812 and before 1818 in Westerlo, Albany County, New York Miss Margaret Arnold a daughter of John Arnold and Cornelia (Mills) Arnold of Westerlo, Albany County New York. They had a large family, those known being: - birth dates not all known -

The Amalitan Society, Philadelphia, wrote to the speaker of the House of Assembly, N.Y. at Albany September 12, 1788 that James Hume requested a letter be read regarding his statement. A list of the Amalitan Society members on September 10th 1788 included: His Excellency Benjamin Franklin, Esq., James Fortson (Treasurer), Joseph Jones, Geo. Willard, Robert Adams, N. Y. for Robert Livingston of London, John Fisher and others. They were on the list requesting a letter of James Hume to the speaker of the Assembly at Albany, N.Y. which was read and referred with James Hume's letter to Mr. Livingston, Van Cortlandt, etc.

Several men were now working separately of each other as a shoebond, the above Hume, a John Adams, and Robert Fulton. All were seeking support to carry forward their plans. By compilation of the Penn Family of Columbia County, N.Y. tells of the Penn's and others going to the bank of the Hudson to meet the Clermont go by.

Unpublished Poems

Unpublishedly you'll never see,
 A poem like a family tree,
 A line that proves beyond doubt,
 How children can't be fathers' sons.
 A line which shows how the world
 Of children, grown and gone - of - was,
 In some report, that and then,
 Developed by a child's mind,
 A line the child's mind's own
 Of children's world is told
 A line, which, spreading lines
 Of children's world is told
 Where he that looks too closely for A picture of a child's Mind, that is, in the end,
 Will find a child's mind.

Chapter IV - By Covered Wagon

Harriett (6) Trenchard (John 5 - 4 - George - 3 - 2 - 1) daughter of John (5) Trenchard and his wife Margaret (Arnold) Trenchard was born in December 1824 in the Town of Wheeler, Steuben County, New York. When her Uncle William Trenchard and Francis Arnold and their large families decided to come West for new land, she and others of the family came along on the wagon train. The Federal Census of the Town of Brookfield, Saukeshu County, Territory of Wisconsin in 1840 lists William Trenchard and his family and gives a total living at his residence of 17. This total of 17 was his family and other relatives including Harriett Trenchard, then a young lady of 22 years.

In Delafield, Saukeshu County, Territory of Wisconsin (Wisconsin became a state in 1848) she was married on 12 January 1847 to Peter G. Bowen (Bowen) by the Rev. William Adams an Episcopal Minister and Professor of Theology at the nearby Washotah Mission. The marriage record is on file in the Saukeshu County, Wisconsin Courthouse, a copy is included in this history. The name Peter G. Bowen was a wrong spelling, no combination of the names Harriett Trenchard and Peter G. could be anyone but Peter Giles Bowen. Land transfers and cemetery records and his mother's pension applications all signed by them are Bowen. Rev. Wm. Adams performed the ceremony in January and registered it July 1st, 1847 at the Courthouse. This Rev. Wm. Adams married a daughter of Bishop Kemper of the Washotah Mission, had a family, one boy being killed in the Civil War. The Mission is today the Episcopal Theological Seminary near Delafield, Wisconsin on the shore of Upper Washotah Lake.

An interesting thing is that the compiler, a great grandson of Peter G. Bowen and Harriett "Trenchard" Bowen is today living in Brookfield about two miles south of where the William Trenchard family farmed in 1840 to 1854, and did not know of this until he started studying the migration of his mother's Trenchard family.

Harriet Bowen and her husband Peter Giles Bowen are not listed in the Index of the 1850 Wisconsin Census. They appear in 1854 in land transfer records of Jefferson County, Wisconsin.

Peter Giles Bowen and Harriett his wife both signed these records when they bought the farm known as the old Potter farm on the north shore of Lake Ripley at Cambridge, Jefferson County, Wisconsin.

The old farmhouse built in 1842 is still there high on a bluff overlooking beautiful Lake Ripley. Cassius Potter the present owner showed me the abstract of the farm and other land that has been in his family so long, part once sold to the Bowen's and bought back again.

On this farm Harriett Trenchard had her only child Sarah Maria Bowen born 18 April 1854. When the little girl was two years old her mother died of tuberculosis. Harriett is buried in the Evergreen Cemetery at Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin.

Not long afterwards, Peter Giles Bowen sold the old Potter farm and bought the Phoenix House (Hotel) at Fort Atkinson, Wis.

Peter Giles Bowen was born on the 29 April 1823 at the town of Sweden, Monroe County, New York, was one of the 10 children of Thomas Bowen born somewhere in Connecticut about 1782 and his wife Sarah A. "James" Bowen.

Soon after taking over the Phoenix House and livery stable across the street, he married 2nd to Mrs. Mary "Shaw" Keefe who already had Will and Libby by her previous marriage. Will died young, a fine man, of F. B.; Libbie married Print May of Fort Atkinson. Another child was born to Mary Bowen and Peter Giles Bowen by this 2nd marriage, a son Fred Charles Bowen. All these people and the little daughter of Harriett lived and grew up together in the Phoenix House at the Fort. Peter G. tried to rename the hotel the Bowen House but everybody kept calling it the Phoenix House so he gave in and had a big new sign made denoting it the Phoenix House. This sign faint but still readable was on the side of hotel until the building, bought by the city of Fort Atkinson in 1925 was remodeled for their City Hall and Fire Station. On this site of the 100 year old Phoenix House the new Community Building of Fort Atkinson, Wis. now stands.

Peter Giles Bowen was a great story teller, so good in fact that he was hired to go to affairs such as Masonic Meetings (he was a strong Mason) just to tell stories. He had early been a County Judge and his obituary in the Jefferson County Union of Fort Atkinson, Wis. on 20 Sept. 1881 tells of him as Judge Bowen an old and honored member of the community.

On Peter G. Bowen's death his widow Mary ran the hotel as her homestead and possessed the only two known items once belonging to Harriett Trenchard; her gold watch made in Paris and her gold thimble both having her name engraved on them. Today the compiler has Harriett's gold watch and his brother Dr. Richard James Hein has her gold thimble.

Mary Shaw Keefe Bowen was a character. She wore a sun bonnet and washed everything every day and swept the sidewalk on Main Street in Fort when nothing else was to be done. The Phoenix House was a rooming house and food was also served and at meal time she went out to the corner on the Main Street in Fort and rang a large dinner bell. This bell is now in the Board Museum at Fort and Mrs. Lida Ivy the Director will tell you about it; she remembers Mary Bowen. Little was known of Mary. She was born in 1830 in Philadelphia, her mother was a Hawthorne, she was very religious and she died of just old age the doctor said, at 90. She once told me the true location of the Fort Atkinson stockade and said she was sure, as she went to the spring there for pails of good drinking water; and in early days the Indians would come and stand in the street outside the hotel dining room windows and look in and watch the white people eat.

All the pewter service and kitchen items of the hotel were wheel barrowed across the street and dumped into the Rock River with everything else almost, when the city bought the building. Mr. Raymond the Fire Chief saved the bell for posterity. My mother took a few of the familiar items, I have the gallon water cooler. A few years later pewter "came back". Anyone wanting antiques, get your diving equipment and go to it.

Fred Bowen became a blacksmith in Fort and had a cottage and a motor boat on Blackhawk Island where I spent a pleasant summer at high school age. Fred married Barbara; they had no children. He died in 1941 at St. Mary's Hospital in Watertown, Wisconsin over 80 years of age. They are both buried in the Hebron, Wisconsin Cemetery. I was given his silver watch case with his initials inscribed.

The little daughter of Harriett "Fronchard" Bowen grew up at the hotel, went through Fort Atkinson High School, met a young druggist in town, James Van Ness Conn and they were married in Fred Bowen's home behind the Phoenix House on 7 March 1874 by the Rev. E. J. Montague.

James Van Ness Conn was born in Valatie, Columbia County, New York on 21 August, 1848. His parents James Conn and Laura Jane Van Ness were from Columbia County, New York. See the Conn Genealogy in the Wisconsin Historical Library by the compiler of this history.

Guests of the Phoenix House at the Fort found ceramic monks head or devils head match holders on the wall beside the door for lighting the oil lamp. At night when the room lamp was turned down and blown out the street lamp outside would cast an eerie light on the devils head and little boys were afraid and could not sleep. Cousin Marge had similar experiences hearing the horses hooves clop clop up and down the street and the wind blow and the old buildings crack and groan, things that are gone but we understand.

James and Sarah Conn had three children, all daughters:

1. Harriet Laura Conn born at the Phoenix House in Fort on 18 August 1875. She took wonderful care of her ailing mother and later went to Chicago and took Nurses Training at Cook County Hospital. There she met Geoffrey J. Fleming then finishing his medical training, and they were married after he had obtained his M.D. degree. There was one girl named Frances. After practicing some years in the Rogers Park District in Chicago they moved to Spokane, Washington, mostly because of Harriet's health. From there they moved to Ontario, California. Here Dr. Fleming became very busy and was called on for miles around, eventually the heavy load broke his health and he died in Ontario in the year 1931 and is buried there. He was so highly thought of that the last two months of his life, a daily medical report was put up at the City Hall telling of his condition.

Harriet Laura "Conn" Fleming R. N. became a member of the San Bernardino County, Daughters of the American Revolution #238265. She was Director of the Health Courses at the Chaffee Union High School and Junior College in Ontario, California and was President of the California Nurses Association and for six years was a Director of the American Nurses Association. She had an accident while at a summer camp on Mount Baldy, from which she later died on 27 June 1945.

Frances Fleming was born 9 July 1905 in Chicago and married Dorsey Glover in Ontario, California. They had three children: 1. Dorsey, Jr. born 1924, now married and a member of the Calif. State Police; 2. Harriet; 3. Alice. Dorsey Glover died in July 1963 at Ontario and is buried there.

2. Jesselyn Louisa Conn the second child of James Van Ness Conn and his wife Sarah Maria "Bowen" Conn was born 7 June 1877 at the Phoenix House in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin. She went through High School there and the Normal Teacher's Training School at Jefferson and taught under principal Mary Spry in Fort.

Classmates in high school were the Jones boys, one whom she almost married, Edn. Locking, Mr. Main the Insurance man in Fort and his late wife Angie, Dr. Rheinok of Milwaukee, later a Marquette University teacher, Clarence Antnes and others. When a teacher at Johnson Creek she found her future husband the principal there, Fred W. Hein and they were married on the 20th of August 1903 at Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin.

Fred W. Hein was a son of Fred W. Hein, G.A.R. and grandson of Christian Von Hein and Catherine Funk a daughter of George Von Funk. He was born one mile north of the present town of London, Wisconsin on the 28th of May 1872. The first year of their marriage was spent at Wausau where Fred W. Hein was principal of the High School. From there he went to Horicon, Wisconsin where he was Supt. of Schools for five years.

Here their son Harold William Hein was born 12 May 1905. He graduated from the South Milwaukee Grammar School, his father now Supt of Schools there signing his certificate, then graduated from Bay View High School, Milwaukee and went to the Milwaukee Teacher's College and then to the Marquette University Dental School from where he graduated in June 1928. He has been in general practice since and his hobbies of painting and history. He is a past president of the Men's Sketch Club of Milwaukee and is a member of the Wisconsin Historical Society and others, and the James Morgan Chapter of the Sons American Revolution, National Number 79902. He also belongs to the Greater Milwaukee Dental Society, the Wisconsin State Dental Society and the American Dental Assoc.

He was married to Florence Elizabeth Smith on 10 June 1931 by Rev. Perry Hulan of the Trinity Methodist Church in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Florence was the daughter of Dr. Sidney Montreville Smith and his wife Elizabeth "Taylor" Smith of Milwaukee, but both born in Kingston, Ontario Canada.

Susan Elizabeth Hein the only child was born in Milwaukee on 23 December 1934. Her mother Florence died 12 May 1954 in St. Lukes Hospital in Milwaukee and is buried in Forest Home Cemetery there. Both Susan Hein and her mother were graduates of Milwaukee Downer College and went through the trials and fun of the "Hat" hunt.

Susan went east for post graduate work in the Social Sciences at Williams and Mary College in Virginia. Later she was a Director in the Milwaukee County Council of the Girl Scouts and in the Dane County Council. She married Almer Swanson, Jr. of Kingston, Wisconsin on 18 April 1958 at the Elm Grove, Wisconsin Methodist Church, Rev. Smith performing the ceremony. They moved to Chicago and here their first child, Elizabeth Ann was born on 31 October 1960 and later baptized in the Rogers Park Methodist Church in Chicago. On June 18, 1963 another daughter Ellen Susan was born to them at the Portage, Wisconsin Hospital and the Swanson's now reside at Montello, Wis.

The second son of Fred W. Hein and Jesselyn L. Hein was Frederick Van Ness Hein born in Horicon, Wis. on 25 June 1907. He graduated from Bay View High School in Milwaukee, Wis. then received his B. A. degree at Ripon College where he was Captain of the Football team. He then taught seven years and was Head Football Coach at Berlin, Wisconsin. He then directed the Physical Education in the City of Kenosha Schools and then in Oshkosh. Here he went on leave to the Oshkosh Teacher's College during the war instructing the Air Force Trainees. He then went to the University of Wisconsin instructing in the Dept. of Education and received his Masters and Doctors Degrees in that Department. From then he went to Chicago and assisted Dr. William Raur in the Dept. of School Health for the American Medical Association. Today Frederic is Director of the Dept. of Environmental Medicine for the American Medical Association and writes and lectures for them. He has written several books, the one "Living", is a College Textbook and is becoming the favorite over the countries campuses. He lives in a fifteen room home at Glen Ellyn, Illinois and his main hobby seems to be remodeling various parts of his mansion.

He married Miss Vera Baum of Berlin, a cousin and they have three children:

1. Frederic Charles Hein born in Milwaukee 6 December 1936. He is a graduate of Illinois Eastern University and is presently teaching and working on his Master's Thesis, drives a Jaguar Car.
2. Owen Van Ness Hein born in Oshkosh, Wisconsin 21 of January 1941 is a graduate of Illinois University Urbana and is now teaching English in Evanston, Illinois High School. He is very gifted, has a brilliant mind, paints as a hobby.
3. Karen Hein was born 20 October 1942 in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. She will graduate with her husband Kenneth Lee Linder this June from Illinois Eastern University, Charlestown, Illinois.

The third and last child of Fred A. Hein and his wife Josephine Louise "Joni" Hein is Richard James Hein, born 9 May 1911 at South Milwaukee, Wis. He graduated from Bay View High School, was state football champion and on the football team three years, then went to Algon College from which he graduated with a Bachelors degree in arts then went to Marquette University and graduated from the Medical School in 1938. He interned at Tacoma, Washington, then started his specialty of Obstetrics by interning a year at San Jose, Calif. then two years in the Los Angeles County Hospital. Here he met the girl who was to become his wife, Miss Jeanne Lorenz, daughter of Eddie Lorenz of Calexico, California. She was taking nurse's training at the large hospital and was one of the twenty girls that came down with infantile paralysis.

Richard then obtained a residency at Wayne County Hospital in Detroit, Michigan where he and another young graduate Dr. Smith handled over 3000 baby cases in one year, for which they each received $110.00 per month. Richard and Jeanne were married in Detroit, Mich. Jan. 1941 leaving on 17 May 1941 she being just over 24 years of age, a tall beautiful girl and a Registered Nurse. They have two daughters:

1. Virginia J. Hein born 7 November 1949 in Los Angeles, California, who seems very musically inclined.
2. Catherine Louise Hein born 5 May 1954.

Richard then went into the Medical Corp of the Army as a First Lieut. and was in the Pacific Teatro almost 5 years coming home from Korea in 1946, a Captain.

Dr. Richard J. Hein, M. D. and family now reside in a fine apartment in Huntington Beach, Calif. and he is specializing in Obstetrics. His hobbies are ocean fishing and the piano.

The second child of John (4) Trenchard (George - 3 - 2 - 1) was Charity Trenchard, born before 1790 at Rostertlo, Albany County, New York. All that is known of her is that she was a school teacher.

HEIN-SONN—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowen, Wednesday, Aug. 20, 1902, Miss Jessemyn L. Sonn to Mr. Fred W. Hein, Rev. George Hirst of the Jefferson Episcopal church officiating.

The bride is a most estimable young lady, a niece of Mrs. N. P. May of this city. She has taught in the third ward school here very acceptably. The groom is a well known teacher of Lake Mills and for two years was principal of the high school at Johnsons Creek. At that time Miss Sonn was his assistant.

In the parlor back of the wedding couple stood the six young ladies who attended the bride, as follows: Misses Blanche Bird, Helen Brown, Jennie Damuth, Stella Hausen, Daisy and Clara Coutremarsh.

The bride was attired in a light blue organdie with white applique and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. The groom wore the conventional black. The decorations were done in yellow and white and were tastefully arranged.

The following guests were present from out of the city: Dr. J. V. N. Sonn, father of the bride, Oshkosh; Mrs. Fred Hein, mother of the groom and Miss Josie Hein, a sister and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yandre, Lake Mills; J. W. Hein, a brother and Mrs. Hein, Deerfield; Wm. Obituary.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

The following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted by Trinity Sabbath-school, Sunday, Sept 21st, 1856. Death, our friends, has been amongst us, and has taken another victim from our little band. We have this morning to do honor to the memory of that victim. JOEL S. VAN NESS is no more. He has been translated from the Church on earth to the church in heaven. He rests from his labors. His life, though short in duration, was filled with acts of christian love. Unlike many who call Christ, Master, he felt that our holy religion required something more from its votaries than abstinence from evil. This negative kind of religion had no charms for him. To do good at all times, in all places, and to the great brotherhood of man, was in his opinion, the best evidence of "having been with Jesus." How faithfully he carried his principles into action we all know. He was faithful in the performance of every duty; never was his place in the Sabbath-school, or the Prayer-meeting vacant, except from causes beyond his control. He may with truth be said to have been the father of the colored Sabbath-school connected with this church. His zeal, sound judgment, and ardent piety, were manifested in this cause, and crowned by the Great Master, with complete success, and one of the best organized and most successful colored schools in the State remains an evidence at once of his usefulness, and the loss that religion has sustained in his death. Of a cheerful temperament, he never affected that solemnity of look and manner deemed by some so essential to christian character. He preferred that acts should furnish the evidence of his faith rather than looks. The constant smile on his face was an index of the peace and holy joy that filled his mind and heart. He met death with the meekness and resignation that might have been anticipated from the purity of his life.

Resolved 1. That the Teachers of this School sympathize deeply with the family of our deceased Brother in the loss they have sustained, and sincerely trust that their great affliction may be sanctified to their spiritual improvement.

2. That a blank page in our minute book be inscribed to his memory.

3. That this Preamble and Resolutions be published in the Christian Advocate and Sunday-school Visitor, and that the Sec'y transmit a copy of them to the widow of our deceased Brother. Extract from the Minutes.

THEO. A. JEFFORDS, Sec'y., T. C. S. S.

MEMOIR OF JOEL S. VAN NESS.

Brother Joel Van Ness died in Valatie, N. Y., on the 9th of Sept., 1856, aged 29. At the early age of 14 he gave his heart to God, and led a religious life. His life among us was one of Christian purity; his death peaceful. From Charleston, S. C., where he had resided a number of years, comes the following tribute of respect:

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by Trinity Sabbath-school, Sunday, Sept. 21st, 1856:

Resolved, 1. That the teachers of this school sympathize deeply with the family of our deceased brother, in the loss they have sustained, and sincerely trust that their great affliction may be sanctified to their spiritual improvement.

2. That a blank page of our minute book be inscribed to his memory.

3. That these resolutions be published in the Christian Advocate and Sunday-school Visitor; and that the secretary transmit a copy of them to the widow of our deceased brother.

Obituary.

DIED, at Charleston, on the 29th December last, in the forty third year of her age, Mrs. CATHERINE H. STEVENS, wife of Joel Stevens, merchant in this city.

The removal, by death, of this estimable lady, demands, at our hands, the tribute of friendship, justly due to worth so modest, to graces of character so attractive.

Endued by nature with a truly benevolent disposition, gentle and engaging manners, and a temper most sweet and lovely, she passed through her short career of trial in this life, in the active discharge of duty, and with the highest usefulness to her family and friends, admired and beloved by all.

She was a loving and devoted wife—a comfort to her husband—a most affectionate and careful mother—a guide to her children in principle and conduct. In her religious deportment, humility was conspicuous; yet was she diligent and persevering in seeking to know "the way of salvation," and to reach unto the spiritual believer in Jesus—an experience that was granted to comfort her in her last hour.

In the midst of usefulness, and with family, friends, and all to render life desirable, she was summoned, by the rapid progress of an obscure disease, to meet the last enemy. Calmly, and with increased confidence in the mercy of God in Christ, and she composed herself for her departure. As death approached, the triumph of grace became apparent; she felt assured and peaceful; and having exhorted the objects of her love to continue steadfast in the work of the Lord, and comforted their grieving hearts, she gently fell asleep in Jesus, resting her hope in his infinite mercy to sinners.

Her life on earth was short, but it was useful—it was spent in a sense of gratitude to God for his manifold mercies; resignation, humble trust, confident hope marked its close. She has passed away, leaving behind the memory of a good name inscribed in the hearts of her mourning husband and children, and fondly cherished by her many admiring friends.

Aug. 21—In Valatie, Col. Co., N. Y., Mrs. LAURA J. SONN, aged 26. She embraced the Saviour in early life and continued a consistent Christian until her death. In 1847, she was united in matrimony with James Sonn, and removed to Wisconsin. Within six months she returned to her friends in Valatie, having buried her all of earthly hopes in a distant land. During the past year she had gradually declined, and nature at length gave way, and now, we trust, her happy spirit rests with those who have gone before. Her last expressions were those of the dying Stephen, "Lord Jesus receive my spirit."

H. M. P.

DIED.

In this village, on the 9th inst., JOEL VAN NESS, aged 29 years.

Mr. Van Ness has long been a consumptive sufferer, but having removed to Charleston, South Carolina, some years since, his health had improved, and it was hoped that, although he could never recover sound health, he might be spared to his friends for many years. He was on a visit to his widowed mother, where it seems to have been appointed that death should overtake him; that that mother who watched over his infancy and manhood might wipe the death damp from his brow, and witness the final closing of his earthly career.

It can truly be said of Mr. Van Ness, that he made acquaintances to make friends; and it needed but to know to respect him. Known by many, his circle of friends was consequently large; and all will feel to sympathize with the relatives of the deceased.

The funeral will take place at the M. E. Church, in this village, at 2 o'clock on Thursday.

This is to certify that this is a true and correct reproduction of the record filed in the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Wisconsin State Board of Health.

Mrs. Sonn has been an invalid for ten years, but since moving to Stoughton last April, she has been gradually failing and has never known a well day. She was only dangerously ill for one day and passed peacefully away at 8 o'clock on last Saturday evening. The doctor pronounced her death from heart failure.

The funeral was held from the house at 8:30 a. m. on Tuesday morning, and regular services were held in the Congregational church at Fort Atkinson at 2 o'clock p. m. on the same day, where interment was made.

now known. He was a great story teller and when a friend of mine joined the mas ons his stories were told at the party after all those years. As you know he had a big farm near Cambridge where my mother was born. Her mother was Harriet French and she died of T.B. when mother was 2 yrs old. I do not like to mix you up on the Funk. Hein records and you will find when you did at do so unless it was for important occasions. I believe grandpa Bowen had relatives in Mt Pleasant Iowa + the one you mention may have been a brother. Mother corresponded with a good many relatives
there among them her uncle "John Frenchland" who afterward moved to Texas where he died.

Chapter V -- Boots and Saddles

William (5) Ferdinand Trenchard (John 4 - George - 3 - 2 - 1) was the third child and the last we have record of. He was born the 14th of August 1794 at Westerlo, Albany County, New York. He was married in Westerlo, Albany County, New York before 1819, to Maria Arnold a daughter of John Arnold and his wife Cornelia (Willsey) Arnold. She was born in the Town of Westerlo, Albany County, New York on the 10th of July 1799 and died in Manchester, Delaware County, Iowa on the 22nd of November 1885, being 86 years 5 months and 2 days old. Her husband died long before her in Manchester at age 60, on the 30th of September 1854. They are both buried in Manchester, Iowa on the family lot.

William and Maria Trenchard left Albany County, New York with his brother John and stayed at Elmira, New York one year or more and then moved on to the Township of Wheeler, Steuben County, New York in 1822. Here they farmed and here most of their large family was born. At least one child, John was born in Albany County (see census of Oglethorpe County, Georgia 1850) the rest being born in Steuben County, N. Y.

In 1846 the William Ferdinand Trenchard family was living in the Town of Brookfield, Waukesha County, Territory of Wisconsin. Wisconsin Territory gained statehood in 1848 and in the 1850 Census of Brookfield, Waukesha County, Wisconsin we find them still here, farming. (see these various Census enclosed).

William F. Trenchard's wife Maria had a brother, Francis Arnold who appears in these various census also with his family. They settled later a few miles farther west in Waukesha County, Wis. in the town of Martin. Francis and some of his family are buried in the Dark River Cemetery 1-1/2 miles north of Hartland, Wis. (see enclosed list of the Dark River Cemetery)

A son of Francis Arnold was James who served in the Civil War. His archives record is enclosed.

The play "Our American Cousin" by Tom Taylor which was the one being given at the theatre when Pres. Abraham Lincoln was assassinated was all about the Trenchard family. In this play some of the Trenchard's, Asa and others returned to England from their American home in Brattleboro, Vt. on the Big Muddy. On the chance there might be some truth to the plays story, I wrote the Clerk at Brattleboro and the other court of the area at Bellows Falls for any Trenchard wills, but there were none on record. However a miscellaneous record of a Trencher girl in that area is in Jottenkill, N.Y. Church records which is nearby. Also when walking through the Dark River Cemetery, one stone near the Arnold stone stated, born in Brattleboro, Vt. More investigation might be interesting.

In 1854 William F. Trenchard and some Brownells and others left Brookfield, Wis and moved to Dubuque and Delaware Counties across the Mississippi River into Iowa, William and his family settling in Manchester, Iowa.

The large family of William F. and Maria Trenchard starts with; 1. John A. Trenchard born in 1820 at Westerlo, Albany County, New York. The compiler has a photograph left him by his mother of Uncle John, as she called him, taken in Dallas, Texas about 1880 in which he is holding his grand daughter Fannie on his knee. On the back in fine penmanship is written "Sir John A. Trenchard age 67-1/2 and granddaughter Fannie Crocker age 2-1/2 years."

This John (6) A. (William F. (5) - John 4 - George 3 - 2 - 1) Trenchard was a remarkable man. He must have had a good education, as he became a school teacher in Iowa. Elias Trenchard and others that went to his school didn't like him as he gave them lickings like everyone else. And later in Georgia taught Latin and Greek & French to the children of the Southern (Planters). Negroes to stand behind them and serve and fan them at meal time is an example of their time in history. When the Civil War was ending John A. Trenchard sold his cattle and lands for between $30,000 and $40,000 in gold and came north. If he would have stayed all cattle would have been confiscated and he was sympathetic to the North.

John (6) A. Trenchard married a southern belle, Miss Martha Frances Armstrong in Oglethorpe County, Georgia 14 May 1846. They had one son named Charles (7) Trenchard, who was a banker, and a daughter Emma. She is listed in the 1850 Georgia Census of Oglethorpe County as 3 years old.

Charles (7) born in Georgia married and had a daughter Frances who died in Texas in 1952, around Beaumont. Roy Trenchard of Manchester, Iowa went many winters to Frances Trenchard's home at Fort Worth, Texas, her husband was a banker also.

Vast areas of land and untold millions were within John's and his son Charles' grasp, but taxes forced selling thousands of acres that is now part of the city of Houston. The letters of Ray Trenchard enclosed are illuminating.

Emma Trenchard born in 1847 in Georgia married a Mr. Crocker. She died in middle age of tuberculosis leaving a daughter Fannie Crocker born in May 1884 at Dallas, Texas. She grew up and married and lived at Decatur, Texas about 20 miles west of Fort Worth.

After the Civil War John (6) A. Trenchard went to Kansas and taught at an Indian School to pay taxes on a large area of land there, but Roy Trenchard's letters enclosed tell the story better than I am able to. John (6) A. Trenchard who wore a top hat and was much dressed up and signed things Sir John A. Ferdinand Trenchard died in Beaumont or nearby about 1900.

II. Henry (6) William Trenchard was born in Steuben County, New York 14 December 1829. He came west with his family in 1846 and is listed in the 1846 - 50 Census of Brookfield, Waukesha County, Wisconsin. He was a large man 6 foot nine inches tall and rangy. He married in Waukesha, Wisconsin on 4 December 1854 Pamela A. Hulbert. He was in Co. 1., 2nd Iowa Cavalry, a Sergeant in the Civil War. He sold land in Manchester, Iowa 20 March 1857. He was in Georgia with his brother John A. before the Civil War, but returned to Iowa before the war started.

During the war he met his brother Nathaniel on the battlefield and said, "See here, this won't do how is it you are on the side of the south." Nathaniel replied that if he, Henry, had been in Atlanta when the war started he would have been forced to be wearing a southern uniform too. They arranged for Nathaniel to escape across the lines at night which he was able to do.

After the war Henry was in Colorado and California and ran a store in Philadelphia but returned some years later and died 20 June 1907 at Manchester and is buried there. His wife Pamela received his Civil War pension until her death 4 November 1910 in Philadelphia, Penn.

They had two sons, Elvin (7) Trenchard born 1 February 1857 who was a lawyer in Philadelphia. He married a society girl there and they had a son Lyle Elvin Trenchard, who may still be alive in Philadelphia but I cannot locate him to date. I have a fine picture of Edwin A. Trenchard holding his son Lyle Elvin which I have had copied and enclosed in this history. The younger son, Nelson, was also a lawyer in Philadelphia.

John Morris 1888

III. Charity Trenchard born before 1825 who married ----- and remained in Steuben County, New York.

IV. Charles (6) Trenchard was born in Steuben Co., New York in 1834 and came west with his family in 1845 or 6. He is listed in the Brookfield, Min. Census in 1850. In 1853 or 4 he went on to Iowa, to what is now the City of Manchester, Delaware County. He bought land at Manchester and then sold it 8 December 1857. He then went to California for gold but returned and for a time was in the building of stores and homes in the new city of Manchester. He died and is buried in Manchester. He married about 1855 a Miss Julia ----- last name unknown, born in 1834 in New York state. They had 3 children. 1. Charles (7) Trenchard born 1856 in Iowa. He was with his Uncle John in the south for some years. He and his father were back in New York state at one time. 2. Nellie Trenchard born 1859 in Iowa. She married a Mr. ----- Gregg and died young. A photograph of her taken in Chicago mentions Nora on the back. She died quite young. 3. Frances Trenchard, no data

V. Silas (6) W. Trenchard was born 27 June 1836 in the Town of Wheeler, Steuben Co., N. Y. He married Emma L. Foster at Manchester, Delaware Co., Iowa 13 June 1865. She was a daughter of Willis Foster and Louise (-----) Foster of Essex County, N.Y.

Silas was enrolled in the First Regiment of Iowa Cavalry on the 13 June 1861 in Company B, commanded by Capt. John McBurnett and was honorably discharged at Davenport, Iowa on the 9th day of September 1865. He was over 6 feet tall, dark complected, gray hair and hazel eyes.

After the war he returned to Manchester, Iowa resumed his occupation of a carpenter, partially disabled from war service. On the 10th of August 1876 he applied for a pension which he received. When he died Nov. 13, 1910 his widow Emma L. received his pension until her death in 1935 at Manchester. Her application for her late husband's pension gives her birthday as 19 June 1847 and was witnessed by Leah L. Masterhan and Albert L. Masterhan. The child is mentioned, named E. M. Hortense. This daughter was born 6 March 1867 in Iowa and deceased in 1910 at the time of her mother's pension application. Hortense who had died in 1904, was married to a Mr. ----- Berry or Barry. The child Leah Barry was married to a Masterhan. She was working on a Trenchard Family history when she lived in Manchester. This history it seems cannot be located, if it is still in existence.

The Trenchard monument on Silas Trenchard's lot states "Father" "Mother" Willis F. Foster and wife Harriet Emery 1875 - 1900. Emery on top of stone and Smith on front of stone. This is in the Oakland Cemetery, Manchester.

VI. Nathaniel (6) George Trenchard was born 18 Oct., 1839 in Wheeler, Steuben Co., N.Y. and came to Brookfield, Wisconsin with his parents and their family in 1846 and then to Manchester Iowa in 1853. He took the trade of harnessmaker, served his apprenticeship and served the trade throughout his lifetime.

Nathaniel or "Nate" as he was often called married Mary Elizabeth Boardman at Manchester, Iowa on the 21 February 1864. She was born 9 April 1847 at Washington, D.C., a daughter of Martha A. Fuller.

The National Archives Record of Nathaniel Trenchard, File Designation AC 875 220 gives a copy of the marriage: "Nathaniel Trenchard and Mary Boardman, on the testimony of Charles Trenchard of Nathaniel Trenchard the written consent of Martha A. Fuller mother of Mary Boardman, Office of County Judge, State of Iowa, Delaware County, U. S. License is hereby granted - join in marriage Nathaniel Trenchard and Mary Boardman of county aforesaid -

Nathaniel Trenchard's Newspaper Obituary:

"From The Manchester Press, Manchester, Iowa May 8, 1919: Paper found for Civil War Veteran, Nate Trenchard, pioneer of Manchester died at his home. He wore both the Blue and the Gray as a Civil War soldier. At the outbreak of the Civil War, he was in Atlanta, Georgia on business. He was driven at bayonet point into the Confederate Army; he deserted at the first opportunity but not before he and his brother Henry had met on the battlefield as members of opposing armies. 7 Oct. 1864, he enlisted in Co. I, 2nd Iowa Cavalry and served until the end of the war. Such is the dramatic episode in the life of "Nate" Trenchard, a pioneer harnessmaker of Manchester, Iowa, born in Steuben County, New York. He came with his father and family in 1853 to this county. There was nothing of what is now Manchester at that time, save raw prairie. The family entered 600 acres of land, farming what is now the West side of the city. Mr. Trenchard was apprenticed to the harnessmaker trade."

1. The first child of Nathaniel (C) George Trenchard and his wife Mary Elizabeth "Boardman" Trenchard was Maude, born 27 November 1864 at Manchester, Iowa. She married 1st. Amos W. Buck in 1881, and they had one son Harry Kerton Buck born Sept. 12, 1882 at Ozark, Iowa. A photograph of Maude at this time of her life is in the compiler's possession; it shows her a pretty dark haired girl, all dressed up and a fancy hat, and a little bit pregnant.

She married 2nd Merit Waterhouse 25 December 1892. There were two children of this second marriage; John Waterhouse born 24 May 1894 at Manchester and Everete Waterhouse. Maude died young in 1894 of tuberculosis.

2. Laura Mabel Trenchard, second child of Nathaniel and Mary was born January 20, 1870 at Manchester, Iowa. She married John Robinson on 17 April 1892. He was born in 1866 and died in 1937 and is buried in Manchester. They lived for years at Thorpe, Iowa. My daughter Mrs. Elmer Swanson, Jr. (Susan "Hein" Swanson) has five berry dishes that once were Laura Mabel "Trenchard" Robinson's, coming down from her mother Mary E. "Boardman" Trenchard making them about 100 years old.

3. Ethel E. Trenchard was born Feb. 20, 1874 at Manchester and married first Lewis H. Griffin Oct. 3, 1903. He died and she married second, J. E. McDonough of Barnett, Wisconsin on Feb. 1, 1913. The McDonough's were from Saukeshu County, Wis., and James McDonough was Register of Deeds there back in 1876.

4. Temperance Viola Trenchard was born Nov. 1, 1878 at Manchester and married first Dr. C. E. Griffin on March 4, 1899. They lived in the far north of Wisconsin forty miles south of Superior and then Ladysmith, Rusk County, Wis. where he died. Dr. Edginton as she called him was a D.D. and an Officer in U. S. I.

They had one child Thelma Frances Griffin born at Waterloo, Iowa on March 24, 1901. She married Luther Miller. From this marriage two children were born, the first being Luther Miller, Jr. born in 1930, who is today a Squadron Leader in the U. S. Air Force in Japan and second is Robert Miller who is Sup't and Head of Education of the schools in Marion County, Ohio.

Thelma Griffin died at 37 years of age and her mother Viola has never forgotten this only child. An adopted son Roger Edgington is a Colonel also in the U. S. Air Force, and was born 23 August 1928 and is married to Val Lebitsch a charming girl from Austria, he met while stationed in Germany. They have three children and are presently living in Bloomington, Indiana where he is being given special training at the University. A brother of Val's has recently come over from Austria and is learning the machinists trade; very ambitious and is holding down two jobs. His name is Anthony Lebitsch and the first money he made went for a car.

Viola "Trenchard" Griffin married second Albert Schulz of Gratiot, Wisconsin. He had a previous marriage and had six children born on his farm at Gratiot. It was quite a thrill to find Viola "Trenchard" Schulz at Manchester.

I was driving to Tama where I knew my mother Jessamyn L. "Conn" Hain had written and knew a cousin, a teacher named Mary Board. Stopping by chance at Manchester for lunch I asked the waitress if there were any Bowen's or Trenchard's living around, these being my late mother's family relations. The waitress said yes there was a Roy Trenchard and he had a sister Viola living in the next block, this sister being Viola "Trenchard" Schulz.

Viola showed me her family photographic Album and a picture of my grandparents James Van Ness Conn and his wife Sarah Maria Bowen and the three girls, one being my mother at about age 5.

Sometimes a family historian is lucky and I surely was.

5. The last child of Nathaniel (6) George Trenchard and his wife Mary H. "Boardman" Trenchard was Fred (7) Roy Trenchard (Nathaniel - 6 - William F. 5 - John - 4 - George 3 - 2 - 1) who was born May 5, 1888 at Manchester, Delaware County, Iowa.

When he was a schoolboy, Roy as he was called had to do more than his share of fighting. This was because his father "Nate" was at the start of the Civil War on the Confederate side and a Lieutenant at that. Roy said, "They knew they had been in a fight." His letters enclosed tell the story of his breaking bronchos and dry farming in the Dakotas and other exploits of his pioneering days.

A factory came to Manchester from Janesville, Wisconsin and with the weavers sent along was Elizabeth Miller. She lived with her parents and a brother in Manchester, they both being born in Germany. Roy and Elizabeth were married at Manchester, Iowa in 1900 and were very happy. He had two ranches, one at Croton, South Dakota and the other at Milesville, South Dakota, as well as his farm at Edgewood, Iowa. There were no children of this marriage and Elizabeth died of cancer in 1938.

Roy spent the summers at his ranch near Milesville, S. Dakota and his winters in Texas. In July 1902 when at Milesville he suffered a heart attack and not knowing whether he would live or not drove alone to the nearest hospital fifty miles south at Phillips, South Dakota. Two months later in September he was able to drive to his farm at Edgewood, Iowa and then stayed at the village and was taken care of by Mabel who was hostess there and who rented him rooms. Roy suffered another heart attack in June of 1903 and died Monday July 29, 1903 at the Delaware County Hospital. One of the last of the Iowa and Dakota pioneers is gone, having lived over 63 years in that country. Fred (7) Roy Trenchard was buried in the Oakland Cemetery at Manchester, Iowa on Thursday August 2, 1963, with the Rev. Robert G. Mendel officiating.

VII. Mary (6) Jane Trenchard was born in 1841 at Wheeler, Steuben County, New York. She married William H. Board at Manchester, Iowa on August 29, 1857. She taught school at Tama and maybe at St. Charles, Iowa and corresponded with my grandmother Sarah (Sadie they called her) Maria "Bowen" Sonn of Port Atkinson, Wisconsin and with my mother Jessamine Louise "Sonn" Hein. Mrs. Hein on a western trip in 1940 kept a diary and it states that they (she and her husband Fred W. Hein) stopped at Tama, Iowa but found through a man who had been a student of Mary Board that she had left Tama years ago for Philadelphia.

Mary and William Henry Board had five children: - not in order of birth:

I. William (Willie) Ferdinand Board born at Manchester, Iowa March 27, 1861. He married Miss Emma Smith who was born in Dyersville, Iowa in 1864 and who died in Philadelphia, Penn., April 20, 1920. He died in 1932 and is buried at Lansdale, Penn. There were five children of this marriage:

I. Martha Ann, born April 9, 1891, Lincoln, Nebraska, married James Arthur Hayes on January 1, 1919. They have 3 children, Emma V. b. 1919; Mabel H. b. 1924, and James Arthur, Jr., born Nov. 3, 1928.

II. Harold William, born July 12, 1894 at Lincoln, Nebraska.

III. Francis Mary Board, R. H. born in Omaha, Nebraska March 1, 1897, married Albert G. Rose, August 20, 1921 at Baltimore, Maryland. They have 3 children: Francis Mary born July 25, 1923, married at Madison, Wis., Bruce Leutcher. She died at Madison April 20, 1958. One child is John F. born Madison Aug. 11, 1957; Doris Mae born Sept. 10, 1924, married at Madison, Wis., June 15, 1951 to Dorvin Nichols, living at Oregon, Wis. in 1963. Their children are Allen Arthur b. 1954 and Lynn Rose b. 1955. And, Lorna Rose born May 9, 1928 in Chicago, Illinois, married at Madison, Wis. June 13, 1949 Herbert Loyey and they have a daughter named Frances R. b. Feb. 1, 1960.

Francis Mary "Board" Rose wrote a fine history of her family and it is especially complete on her Board family.

IV. Mabel Gertrude Board, was born Dyersville, Iowa July 28, 1899, married Harvey John Mason. They lived at Lansdale, Penn. near Philadelphia where he was born. They have a son Harvey John, Jr. born Philadelphia January 17, 1929 and who married Miss Joy Rea there in 1952.

V. The fifth and last child of William F. Board and Emma "Smith" Board was David Allen Board, born at Dyersville, Dubuque County, Iowa on August 12, 1901. He married Vera R. Winchell. They had one son David Allen, Jr., born in Los Angeles, Calif. June 8, 1933. His father died in 1961 January 27, at Redwood City, Calif.

2. Mary Alice Board, daughter of William H. Board and Mary Jane "Trenchard" Board his wife was born in Iowa in 1858 and died at Manchester Nov. 3, 1884.

3. Frank Board was born in Manchester, Iowa in 1860

4. Mabel Board was born in Manchester, Iowa about 1877 and married Charles Ryan a druggist. They lived in Cedar Rapids, Iowa where Mr. Ryan had his drugstore. Mabel died of a heart attack when not too old about 50 - 55 years of age. The compiler has a tintype of Mabel and Gertrude Board, sisters, when Gertrude was about 9 years old and Mabel about 4 years of age. Mabel and Charles Ryan had two sons Paul B. who was living in California in 1940 and Donald Charles who was living in Caldwell, Essex County, New Jersey in 1940.

Mr. Charles (Chas.) Ryan died in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, date unknown.

5. Gertrude D. Board, last child, daughter of William H. Board and Mary Jane "Trenchard" Board was born in Manchester, Iowa in 1882. She early showed an aptitude for languages and after finishing the local schools went to Mount Carroll College at Mount Carroll, Illinois. She then went to Wheaton College, four miles west of my brother Dr. Frederic Van Ness Hein's present residence of Glen Ellyn, Illinois. Here Gertrude made an enviable record and graduated in 1909. That same year she went to Madison, Wisconsin and taught English at the Madison High School. She then went to the University of Chicago and did post graduate work and taught the classical languages. From Chicago she went to Philadelphia, Penn. and taught there for many years, a leader in her profession. Here were Trenchard relations and her mother came and lived with her. Gertrude never married and she died November 5, 1944 in Philadelphia and is buried on her lot in the Lansdale, Montgomery Co., Penn. cemetery. Enclosed is a chart of her immediate family made from her will of March 3, 1940. She had worked on her family history from an early age (Roy Trenchard's letters) but the MS. cannot be located to date.

VIII. Ann (6) Trenchard daughter of William F. Trenchard and his wife Mariah "Arnold" Trenchard was born about 1825 - 32 in Steuben County, N. Y. She married Edwin Hart Brownell in Manchester, Iowa. It is probable some Brownell's came west with the Trenchards and Arnolds and first settled in Brookfield, Waukesha Co., Wis. Also a David and a C. Brownell had land in Brookfield in 1859 and 1849 respectively and a John Brownell had land in Manchester, Iowa, Nov. 10, 1853 (see Deed Book H. Page 196-7) Ann Brownell died in September 1933 at Manchester, Iowa. She was Viola Trenchard's father's oldest sister.

IX. William (6) Trenchard one of the first children of William (5) F. Trenchard and his wife Mariah "Arnold" Trenchard was probably born in Steuben County, N.Y. about 1823. He married and had a daughter named Mariah born in 1849. William (6) died when a young man.

X. Patience Trenchard was born about 1829 in Town of Wheeler, Steuben Co., N.Y. She married a Mr. ——— Early.

XI. Emma L. Trenchard was born probably between 1830 and 40; she was married; she was another Trenchard besides Maria L. "Poster" Trenchard.

XII. M. E. Trenchard was born about 1827 and was married and was another daughter of William (5) F. Trenchard and Mariah "Arnold" Trenchard, besides wife of H. B. Trenchard.

Dear Dr. Hein - Received your letter, and am sorry to say, that I can't remember, a Harriet Trenchard you spoke of, but the J. B. Trenchard you mentioned surely has to be my Uncle John Trenchard of Texas, a school teacher by the way, for I often heard Grandmother tell of my Dad and younger of her children going to school to him, I can also remember of a Cousin Fannie, that is hearing my parents speak of them, and I believe that Fannie you write of married a Crocker. I will remember hearing the folks speak of many times, of the Bowen Family, especially of the lady called Sarah, but I don't know to which of the Trenchard men, they belong, but I am sending you Francis Ross's

address at Albert Lea, Minn., and I am sure if she still has the data on the family,
she had when she was here,
she can give you information.
The picture we looked at in the old Family Album, of a man and his son, taken in Philadelphia.
He was Uncle Henry Trenchard Jr., if you would like the picture you may have it.
Hoping you may find more information from Francis, and wishing you the best of luck.
And I guess you would be a 3rd or 4th cousin of my father's and I, please let me know if you hear from Francis and would like the picture, Sincerely
Violet Trenchard Schultz.

This is her address as she sent to me.

Dear Dr. Hein:

Your letter was given to me recently by Mr. Henry Latham, the town Supervisor, and I have been endeavoring since to trace the information that your require. The Westerlo Historical Society of which I am the archivist has no material whatever on the Trenchard family, but there is a Mr. Charles Trenchard living a little beyond Dormansville on the Albany Road, and I took him your letter. Unfortunately, he knows very little about the history of the family except the name of his grandfather and the location of the original Trenchard home which is still in existence and considerably nearer to the village of Westerlo than the present one. He also knew where the older Trenchards are buried, so I went to the cemetery and secured the following information:

James Trenchard
d. 1858
aged 58 years

Mohala Trenchard
d. 1866
aged 65 years

(These are apparently his great grandparents)

Henry Trenchard
d. 1876
aged 45 years

Charles Trenchard
1836--1910

Mary Jane Huyck
1846--1911

(Charles and Mary are the grandparents of the present Charles.)

That, unfortunately, is all that I can secure on the family. You might write to Mr. Charles Trenchard whose address is Aloove, New York, for further information.

Sincerely yours,

Pioneering Allied Families

Related to the Manchester, Iowa Trenchards were the Fullers; other branches of the Fullers were in Wisconsin and related to the Dowens.

Newton Fuller was born in 1831 in Pennsylvania. He came west with his parents Benjamin and Frances Fuller who were in St. Charles, Kane County, Illinois in 1850. Also with them came his sisters Sarah and Almira. Susan, Eleanor and a brother Webster were born in Illinois.

Nearby lived the Boardman, Foster and the Dowen families (see census)

On Sept. 30, 1864 Newton Fuller enlisted in Co. I, 11th Regt., Iowa Infantry. His Civil War Archives Record Number 6C-048-050 Iowa gives us the following facts:

He married Miss Elizabeth Tierney at St. Charles, Kane County, Illinois on the 28 December 1853. She was born in 1833 and died 19 January 1910 in Ryan, Iowa. This war record states neither was married before or after this marriage. The widow's pension application states that Newton died 6 December 1901 at Adams Township, Delaware County, Iowa, P. O. address, Ehler.

One child was born in 1860; all children were over age 10 years in 1892. Two of the children were Eleanor H. Fuller and Susan Fuller. Included in this history are photographs of these two beautiful girls, taken in Chicago by Reynolds and Rider, Photographers at 155 Clark Street. Eleanor H. was called Maggie, and her sister Susie was later in New York City.

Newton and Lizzie Fuller had eight children altogether.

Martha A. Fuller was the mother of Mary Elizabeth Boardman, who married Nathaniel George Trenchard. She gave her written consent to her daughter Mary's being married to Nathaniel at Manchester, Iowa on 21 February 1864, her daughter being under age.

Newton Fuller's Archives Record File Designation 6C-048-050 states: Declaration for Invalid Pension, State of Iowa, County of Delaware 14 November 1892 personally appeared before me, a Clerk of Dist. Pensioner dropped, Des Moines Ia., Agency Cert. #048050, widow pensioner Elizabeth Fuller, soldier Newton, Service 24 Iowa Inf.

Sir: I have the honor to report that the above named pensioner who was last paid at $12 to 4 Jan. 1910 has been dropped because of death about Jan. 19, 1910. W. Y. Willcox, U. S. Pension Agent.

George Fuller was called by Viola "Frenchard" Schultz her Uncle. Viola gave me photographs of her grandma Boardman Fuller and of the above Uncle George Fuller. He appears to be about 9 years old on his photograph and she about 70 years old on hers. A photograph of aunt Lizzie Fuller is to be found in this history.

Another Fuller was born in the Phoenix House at Fort Atkinson, Wis. where Jassern L. "Son" Hein was born. This was Frank Fuller who married a Bingham girl of Fort Atkinson. He died in 1955 at Little Rock, Arkansas and is buried in Forest Home Cemetery in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Frank Fuller spent some winters in Bradenton, Florida and knew the Fred Hein's there.

Another Fuller family of Wisconsin was William P. Fuller who was born in Palmer, Mass. June 26, 1842 and who married at Kewassaw, Wisconsin, Julia E. Bowen who was born 24 October 1844 at Palmer, Mass. She was a daughter of David C. Bowen and Ruth H. Handy of Palmer, Mass.

William P. Fuller and Julia had a son William Fuller, Jr. born 1878 in Wisconsin. He married Anna Schotz who died previous to 1900. He died at Westfield, Wisconsin in 1903, a fine old man. He had a brother Charles A. born 1867 who was a creamery man at Independence and Waverly, Iowa. He went to California with his family, the young folks returning to Iowa and Wisconsin but Charles Fuller dying there in 1947.

A Fuller Family of Chautauqua County, N. Y. is listed in the 1850 Census, Town of Sheridan: -

Revel Fuller	50	M	F. 1344	Ct.
Lois Fuller	48			"
Allen "	14	M		N.Y.

Also from this Town were Bucks, Dexters, Grays, Seldons, Kitchens, Bates, Shepherd and Giles Families.

Cayuga County, N. Y. Census of 1850 - Town of Hiles had: -

Olive Fuller	63			"
Rhoda "	27			"
William "	37		Farmer	"

Also from Hiles were Cody, Van Orsland, Kenyon, Chamberlain, Brown, Miller, Becker, Dexter and Shepherd families.

David Andrew Bowen married Mary E. Loveley on 5-28-1849 in Sheridan and came to Jefferson County, Wisconsin with his bride. A David C. Bowen and his wife Ruth Handy Bowen both died at Westfield, Wis. She was the mother of a David A. Bowen who died during the Civil war and she received his pension.

State of New York, County of Steuben: Caleb Foster of the town of Adaira in the County of Chemung and state aforesaid on this 7th day of February 1855 personally appeared before me a Justice of the Peace for the said County of Steuben -- declares that his age is sixty four years and that he is the identical individual by the name of Caleb Foster who was a Private in the Company commanded by Capt. Van Antwerp in the Regt. of New York Militia commanded by Col. Ferington in the war with Great Britain declared by the United States on the 18th day of June 1812. Family tradition was - "Mrs. Jessesyn Louise "John" Reinhold, little Town near St. Charles, Iowa, Board or Habel Boardman, daughter of Henrietta who married a brother of Peter Giles Bowen."

In 1855 William M. Board was in Manchester, Iowa, and in 1857 he had a store there. John Brownell also there.

Mrs. Jessesyn L. "John" Hein said, "Henrietta Bowen lived in Iowa, beyond St. Charles; was married."

The Hon. John Mead Board born Nov. 21, 1817 in N. J. refused a Presidential Nomination in 1855 as Whig candidate. He was more a philanthropist than politician, lived then at Netuchen, N. J., was an old friend of Horace Greeley.

The compiler's third cousin Frances "Board" Rose has worked out her particular Board branch beautifully in her book "Board, Trenchard, Wilsey, McKee and kindred families" so I will merely give a few notes I have run on to that might be of interest: - Ferdinando Board the emigrant came from County Somerset, England, he being born July 15, 1803 Burnham Parish. He married Jane Monroton in England in 1827. He died after date of his will July 19, 1864 and its probate date of January 7, 1867. His son Ferdinand J. Board born 10 July, 1838 in England was in America in 1849 and married Mary Rigg of Pyrawille, Dubuque County, Iowa on 23 May 1854. This Rigg family for a time lived in Cass County, N. Y. at Skanateles where the Brown and Goodrich families lived some of whom later came to Jefferson County, Wisconsin.

One child Ellen who married George Toogood had a daughter Carrie. Her husband died in the Titanic disaster, his name was Chaffee. William Henry Board b. 1832 married Mary Jane Trenchard daughter of William Ferdinand Trenchard and Maria Arnold August 29, 1857, Manchester, Iowa. Children of William H. Board and Mary Jane "Trenchard" Board were: - Alice, born 1858; William F. born 1861; Frankie born 1866; Mabel, born 1877; and Gertrude born 1882, unmarried, a teacher. The above Mabel married Chas. Ryan a druggist. The above William F. Board married Emma Smith. A daughter of Frances Board who married Albert G. Rose.

Unidentified Boards are: A. A. Board who lived in Union Center, Wis. 1901, George Board who lived in Penn and had a son Stephen who lived in Wisconsin and who had a son Chauncey H. who was living in Davenport, Iowa 1901.

Other possible Board relations were: Charles H. Board, graduated Yale 1872, Dr. John J. Board, graduated Jefferson Medical College, Phil. 1880. William H. Board, N. Y. C. 1893, Thomas A. Board, with Adelak Southern Railroad 1896 and George A. Board, N. Y. C. Secy. Northern Pacific R. R. Co.

The 1800 Census of Delaware Twp. (includes Manchester) Delaware County, Iowa shows William Board 26 H. Harness Maker b. England, Mary J. Board 19 F. b. N. Y. and Mary A. Board 2 F b. Iowa.

Roy Trenchard's letter of 10-31-1902 states, Gertrude Board was the youngest daughter of Mary "Trenchard" Board and William Board. Only time I remember seeing her was in 1899. I was convalescing from an appendicitis -- I was 19 then -- she visited with me quite a bit -- as she told it the first Trenchard to be knighted was during Queen Anne's War, she may have left some history at the library in Illinois. -- U. of Chicago where she taught.

Gertrude Board made her will in 1940 and died in Philadelphia Nov. 5, 1944. Among others she left bequests to Wheaton College; Mt. Carroll, Ill. Frances Shiner Junior College and the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

Dear Sir

Received your letter while in at Ranch in S. Dak. intended to answer it promptly, but had a heart attack, had folks from Iowa get me from Hospital at Philip. S. Dak
I very much intended to see you could have a talk just on your visit to Ranch. Each some time or other. Have had excellent health for eighty years, never had me for Doctor or Hospital till about year and half ago. Have lived a strenuous life out doors, on Bay, making Ranches, estate Ranches developed winter wheat on Summer Fallow in a semi arid area. They said could not be done. Had a full life such as it was.
Have some regrets, feel I could have contributed more. So I very much hope we may meet on your trip to Galena ^{rather} on way back home will try to be at Sixties Bar on the Monday as you stated. Very best of wishes to you which it held a few years more would have been worth Millions. I got the information on this Texas story from Cousin Charles wife (uncle John's only son)

She showed me some of Cousin Charles' love

She passed on 1952. I think it was it as a slap sake, at that time. I or permitted President of National Bank name incorporated in the bank notes.

That has been rescinded for some time.
I've had quite a varied life and if I could never had the desire or ability to make it interesting reading. I'm sorry it's not

County of New London on this 11th day of July A 1830 personally appeared in open court before the Court of Probate for the District of New London in the County & State aforesaid now SITTING John Arnold son of the town of New London in said district age Eighty four years WHO BEING first duly sworn According To LAW to oath on his oath make the following declaration in answer to an order made in the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th A 1792. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated viz.

On the first of August 1776 he was drafted to serve as a private in a company of Connecticut Militia under the command of Captain Daniel Lacey of Lebanon in the State of Connecticut, Andrew Huntington was Lieutenant, William Cardock was Ensign of said Company. said Company composed a part of a Regiment of which Jonathan Bradford of Lebanon in said State and Colonel Daniel Smith of said town of Lebanon was Major. That said Company was ordered by Governor Trumbull of Connecticut to march to Newport and that it did march on the sea shore town through New Haven and stationed at New Rochelle in said Westchester County in the State of New York during most of the time of said term of duty. General Israel Putnam commanded the Connecticut forces - and that said Company was discharged on the 1st of November 1776 the term of - it was confirmed having expired, and the said declarant affirms on his oath aforesaid that he did then in said company serve the full term of three months and that on the EXPIRATION THEREOF he was honorably discharged.

And that at the time he was drafted he resided in said town of Lebanon.

And he further on his oath aforesaid declares and says that in the month of September 1780 while he was residing in said town of Lebanon he was drafted to serve for one other term of three months in the service of the United States and that he did serve for said term as a Sergeant of Infantry in the Fort at New London in said State called Fort Trumbull for said term of three months - The draft in said town of Lebanon was for an Ensign Captain and that Captain Thomas was the Ensign appointed to command. That this DETACHMENT WITH OTHERS drafted was under the command of Colonel Chapman of Tolland in said State and composed part of the garrison at said New London and that at the end of said term of three months he was honorably discharged but whether discharged in writing I do not know if discharged in writing I DO NOT RECALL THAT because of it.

And that in the following winter he was engaged in the service of the United States as a Tender under the direction and command of A. Hayes resident late of said town of Lebanon DECEASED WHO was a Captain of Company of the United States joint with a term from said Lebanon to Boston. - from there by the way in said State of Connecticut and to various other places and engaged in the service for the term of Two months.

That afterwards on the 1st of May 1781 he enlisted to serve in the Town Service of the United States for the term of Eight months and that he did serve in said Town Service the said term of eight months by of said in person. At the end of said term he was honorably discharged. That said service was under the direction of Col. Isaiah Loomis now said town of Lebanon who was a Conductor of teams at that time in said service. That he went from said Lebanon to Hartford Conn., thence to the North River then to the DELAWARE to the head of tide. The boat carried the baggage of the army to the head of tide and from thence the baggage of the army was sent by water and thus the duties of the said boat service were fulfilling and very much and that when the term of said service expired he returned home but without discharging in writing he does not remember nor does he know what has become of it except if in writing.

And he further in his said affidavit declares and says that during the latter part of his revolutionary service he in said term of his term and that the periods of his service amount to about one month viz, from the 1st of March to the 1st of April of said year and that as a soldier - viz, of WHICH he was a regular soldier.

And he further says that he was born in Phillips county in the State of New York on the first day of April A 1791 - at which place his father then lived - no having received there from Connecticut and he was then the eldest son of a four years old his said father removed from Connecticut and resided in the town of Coventry and joining the army during the revolutionary war. In the year 1791 the Continental Congress removed from said town to New London where he resided there for about TWELVE years - when he removed to Hallowell in the State of Maine where he resided until the month of May last when he finally returned up he returned to his friends in said town.

That he has not in his possession any written discharges or other documentary evidence of his service nor does he recollect any to have been any nor has he any record of his birth but he refers to the numerous affidavits of the very few surviving companions of his service and of his early school and friends of no other persons or evidence that he can obtain to confirm this his declaration.

He hereby solemnly swears that the matter is a portion of his duty and he present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the army of any State.

Ira Dayton McCoy, Jr., Los Angeles, Calif. (bass. 21198), son of Ira Dayton and Margaret Owen (Compton) McCoy; g-son of James Alexander and Evaline Bennett (Law) McCoy; g - grandson of Alexander and Nancy (Clossier) McCoy; great (2) grandson of John (and Lydia Keeler) McCoy; private Cal. Marine Swifts Conn. Regt.; great (3) grandson of Eliza Keeler, private second Conn. Regt.; great grandson of Dayton and Nancy (Trenchard) Law; great (-) grandson of John and Theodora (Ogden) Trenchard; great (3) grandson of George Trenchard, Captain First Calum Battalion New Jersey Militia.

John and Theodora Ogden Trenchard had by their marriage the following children; Curtis, born 1775; Lelitia, b. 1781; John, b. July 21, 1783 d. July 1, 1863; Richard, b. 1785; Elizabeth, b. 1788 and Nancy, b. 1791. There were probably more children before Curtis.

A Trenchard Bowen Connection

The Administration Bond of John Trenchard deceased dated 22 October 1823 at County of Cumberland, New Jersey was signed by: - Curtis Trenchard, John Trenchard, Smith Bowen and Moses Bateman

The Charles Chapard (Bowen) chart shows that Richard¹ Bowen, Obadiah (2) Bowen, Samuel (3) Bowen who was born 12 July 1659 Rehoboth, N. J. and married Eliza both (Good) Wharton 20 May 1684 and who died January 1720/1, moved from Mass. to Cohamsey, Salem County, New Jersey. Samuel's children were John, Samuel, Dan, Elijah, Joanna, Mary, Clifton and Elizabeth, all good old Bowen names. One of these children had descendant Smith Bowen. A present day map shows Cohamsey just inside the line in Salem County, New Jersey, the other side of the line being Cumberland County. A town nearby in Cumberland County is named Bowentown. A search of the County Histories of Salem and Cumberland, N. J. is invited.

Desertion in the Revolutionary War and War of 1812 was not what it is today. The men volunteered and when the fighting was close they all went in some for only a few days, and as the enemy moved away and things were quiet they returned to their homes to seed the land and to harvest the crops. The Continental Army was stricter but the state militia companies were often very loose organizations. Food and money was scarce and blankets often non-existent. Leaves often were granted in winter, the men themselves going back when the enemy came closer and their homes and families were in danger.

In Aleeve, New York today, which is in the town of Westerlo, Albany County, lives Charles A. Trenchard and his family. He runs a Radio and Television Sales and Service Company there. His father was Garrett T. Trenchard born in the town of Westerlo, Albany County, New York May 11, 1879. His father born in 1837 is buried nearby. (See enclosed chart of this family).

Charles wrote the compiler March 23, 1963. "We too, are supposed to have some relation living in New Jersey in fact the Judge Trenchard that presided at the Emma Lindberg trial was thought to be a relative."

Charles Trenchard's grandfather was also named Charles and he married Mary Jane Heyuk who gave him seven children: Emma, Lida, Mahala, another daughter and three sons Henry, Theodore and Garrett. Garrett married Willie Mosher and they had four children: Roy, Charles, Bertha and Henry.

Charles married Kathleen Mastbay and they have three children: Erlene, b. 1930; Diana, b. 1942 and Charles, Jr., b. 1947.

In the 1850's and later when Peter Allen Brown, whose first wife was Harriett Frenchard, ran the Phoenix or Brown House in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, Indians were frequent visitors. Mary Brown the second wife of Peter A. Brown told the compiler that often in the early days the Indians were always around. The Indians then in Wisconsin were Potawatomi, Menominee and Winnebago. The Menominees were native in Wisconsin, Potawatomi's were crowded into Wisconsin from Indiana and Michigan by the English and the Spaniards forced the Winnebagoes up from the south.

After the Black Hawk War the Indians in Wisconsin caused little trouble to the settlers. Fred W. Hoan told how when he was a boy on his father's farm near London, Wisconsin, and they would butcher a hog, they would leave the head out in the barnyard and as it became dark they would go into the farm house and watch out the windows and the Indians always seemed to know and would come and run off with the head.

A Smith Brown is in the list of the Alarm Company of Bristol County, N. Y., in 1779 and is one of the Warren members. After the British went through, a list of losses included - Smith Brown's loss out of his house, 35 skins yarn, 1 silver watch, 2 axes, 1 chissel, 2 axes, 2 guns, 1 sword, etc.

To bring together the records of the past and to house them in buildings where they will be preserved for the use of men living in the future, a nation must believe in three things. It must believe in the past. It must believe in the future. It must above all believe in the capacity of its people to learn from the past that they can gain in judgement for the creation of the future. - Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

The change in the calendar after 1752; 11 days difference between Julian (Old style) and Gregorian (New style). That's why George Washington's birthday was on February 11, old style, but on February 22, new style.

The Chapter on the Board finally mentions Blooming Grove; here is part of the 1800 Census of the Town of Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N.Y. and it shows:-

Cornelius Board	2	-	1	1	-	2	2
James Arnold	2	-	1	-	-	-	-

Ray Frenchard's letter of Oct. 31, 1902 stated, "For there is another Frenchard or was. I never met him but had knowledge of him through a second cousin Frances Frenchard, cousin Charles Daughter. He passed on 1912. I think it was George Frenchard Deland, Illinois. He was president of a bank there had two girls or daughters. No no doubt has passed on, but you may get some information from them. It was a National Bank he gave a Ten dollar bill to me with his name on it as a Keokuk, at that time Gov. permitted presidents of National Banks name incorporated on these bank notes. That has been recorded for some time."

Deland, Illinois is not too far from Urbana, and the compiler found the big Frenchard mansion in the little town in Vieth County. On my way I was working on a Frenchard history I was made welcome and allowed the use of their library and family charts and material and accepted their kind luncheon invitation.

The George Trenchard of Roy's letter had passed on and his son William and daughter Mary still live here, not two daughters as Roy remembered. This son William Trenchard is President of the Deland Bank now. He showed me a Ten dollar bill from his billfold, with his father George Trenchard's name on it.

The present President Trenchard appeared to be about sixty years of age and his wife a little younger. Both are about 5 foot 8 inches tall and stocky. This man's grandfather was William Oliver Trenchard who came to Illinois from New York State in 1842, he had four sons and four daughters:

1. Mary Elizabeth Trenchard, married a Dr. ——— Fisher
2. Helen Eliza Trenchard, married a Bragg.
3. Dr. Joseph T. Trenchard, practiced medicine in Chicago, has a son Ralph now practicing law in Chicago, and one of his sons Peter attended the University of Illinois and called on his cousin William at Deland
4. William Henry Trenchard
5. An infant son
6. Frances Trenchard, married a Sullivan
7. Sarah Trenchard, married a Horton
8. George Trenchard the former President of the Deland Bank

The present William Trenchard is married to Lucy Thurston, born Ankeny, Illinois and they have a daughter living in Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin married to Mr. French of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Both Platt County, Illinois Historians have Trenchard Write-Ups.

A cousin Frances went to Chicago Art Institute and paints in oil. William has two fine pictures of her's in his Deland mansion.

President Trenchard and his wife visited Sir Hugh Trenchard in England in 1930 and found him living rent free in a Castle belonging to the King of England, for war services rendered. This Sir Hugh was head of the Royal Flying Corp. during World War I. William's father George had planned to visit Sir Hugh Trenchard and had the invitation in 1939 but became sick in Italy and they had to cancel, so his son William was especially happy to see Sir Hugh. He found him a tall man, slightly stooped like the quailor, William said and had a striking resemblance to an Uncle of his. The son in the Deland Trenchard home has a picture of William Oliver Trenchard and his wife and the seven great children. One of the daughters looks much like Sarah Maria Bowen, the only daughter of Harriett Trenchard.

William read Roy's letter and said enough fit so we would all be cousins.

Joseph Wiltain was on a farm in Nelson's Highlands just after the Revolution and probably lived there before. Also living in this Highlands area were Robert Oakley, John Griffin, Jacob Hunkell, widow Apple, John Nelson, Henry Wiltain, John Tammam, Gilbert Oakley, John and Jacob Armstrong, and a Davenport family among others. This Highlands area is famous in Revolutionary War history as it is near West point and soldiers were stationed here.

A photograph of Jim Boardman, brother of Mary B. Boardman shows him a tall serious appearing man about 25 years old. The photograph was taken by G. G. Gusting, Corner Main and Franklin Streets, Manchester, Iowa.

Viola Trenchard said her Aunt Mary Board was a teacher, once lived at Tama, Iowa (maybe also at St. Charles) and would be the one the compiler's grandmother Sarah (Sadie) Maria Bowen wrote in Iowa. See Jonathan L. Board's diary of western trip in 1910 and the stop in Tama, etc. Also see Mrs. Harrison's letter from Philadelphia telling of her mother Mary L. "Lena" Van Borman writing to Mary ----- in Iowa.

Viola "Trenchard" Schultz' Uncle George Fuller, a photograph shows a boy of about 7 - 10 years of age in long trousers and a bow tie, also a photograph of Grandpa Boardman Fuller. She looks about 70 years old now.

A Mrs. Henry Boardman (Miss Jennie Balthus) was Librarian at Oconomowoc, Wisconsin in 1906.

Viola "Trenchard" Schultz stated in 1900 she was related to the Linburgh trial Judge, then one of the Uncles who stayed in the East and went to Philadelphia and became a lawyer.

Christopher Hartout, Jr., born in Hysanig Valley, Pa. Dec. 17, 1774, from a large family, married Miss Ellen Tiffany at Palmyra, New York in June, 1823. His father was born at Graton, Conn. 30 May 1757 and died 21 April 1831 at Arkport, N. Y.

Col. Eleazer Lindley came to Steuben County, N. Y. from N. J. in 1787. was in the Rev., his son by the same name became a Judge in Steuben Co., N. Y. and died there in 1825.

In 1816 a newspaper was started by Benjamin Board at Bath, called the Steuben and Allegany Patriot and it ran to 1851.

Amos James' daughter Sarah who was the mother of Peter Giles Bowen came from near Spencer town, Columbia County, N. Y. From here also came Capt. Joel Pratt after whom Prattsburgh was named.

A surveyor named Preston came to Steuben County from Rochester, Albany Co., N. Y. in 1797.

A George W. Trenchard, Jr. was 1st Lieut. in 17th N. Y. Inf. 1898.

The Whelps and German Purchase included all of Steuben County, New York, etc. It totald over 2,000,000 acres. Its obligations were not met and part was sold to William Killick of Holland and eleven others and from then was known as the Holland Land Company.

Steuben County was settled by two migrating peoples, one coming from Pennsland east and the other from the Northeast from New England.

Steuben County from Ontario County, N. Y., in 1790 had a population of 1000. In 1808 & 1814 part went to Allegany County and in 1822 a part of Danville went to Livingston County, and part of Hamling to Yates County in 1824 and finally a part of Steuben County went to Schuyler County in 1834.

Early in the morning of December 20, 1963 the compiler received a long distance telephone call from Mr. Charles Schultz at Manchester, Iowa saying that his wife Viola "Trenchard" Schultz had passed away that last night. This history was completed with her help. She was the last of her Trenchard name in Manchester, Iowa, her brother Roy having died on July 19, 1963.

The obituary notice and writings in the Dec. 26, 1963 issue of The Manchester Press, Manchester, Iowa: - Mrs. Viola Schultz - Mrs. Viola T. Schultz, 185, longtime Manchester resident, passed away at the Delaware County Memorial Hospital Thursday afternoon following several years of failing health.

Funeral services for Mrs. Schultz were held from the Shelly Funeral home Saturday at 10:30 A.M. with the Rev. Robert G. Wendel officiating. Burial was made in the Oak Hill Cemetery at Nashua.

Copy of letter to W. W. Hain, Brookfield, Wis., from Charles A. Trenchard, Alceve,
New York March 23, 1963

Alceve, New York
March 23, 1963

Dear Dr. Hain:

Yours both a t-h and please forgive my seeming neglect in not acknowledging them much sooner.

I don't know that I can be of much help since none of the names you mention are familiar sounding to me. My father was: Garrett T. Trenchard born in the town of Westerlo, May 11, 1879, his father was Charles Trenchard born 1837 but, where I do not know. We too are supposed to have some relation living in New Jersey in fact the judge Trenchard that presided at the James Lindbergh trial was thought to be a relative.

My grandfather Charles married a Mary Jane Hyeck, they had 7 children, Anna, Lida, Mahala, one daughter I do not recall the name of but, the 3 sons were Henry, Theodore and my father Garrett, all are now deceased. My father married Billie Hiecher and they had 4 children, Roy, (Charles me), Martha and Mary. I am married to Kathleen Costboy and we have 3 children, Arlene 17, Diana 11 and Charles Jr. 10.

Mrs. Laurence Applebee is making a search of their lineage and has told me of Trenchard's having married into their clan so perhaps she could shed some light your way - her address is Westerlo or Doranville, N.Y.

It is indeed an interesting study. As for my statistics I am 50 years old and conduct my own business of television sales and service and I do feel our families are related somewhere along the line. My best to you and yours.

Sincerely

C. A. Trenchard

Peter G. Bowen and Harriett his wife buy the Potter Farm

In 1963 I visited the present owner of this farm, situated high on the north shore of Lake Kipley at Cambridge, Wisconsin. His name is Cassius Potter and he told me the Potters had been landowners around this area since 1843 when the farmhouse he now lives in was built. This is the same farmhouse and on part of the old Potter landgrants that my great grandparents Peter Oliver Bowen and his wife Harriett "Fenchard" Bowen owned for a few short years, and it was while here that my grandmother Sarah Maria Bowen was born in 1856, and where Harriett "Fenchard" Bowen died in 1858.

Cassius Potter was quite surprised when I told him my great grandparents' names would be on his abstract and he fortunately having at home he sent over this abstract and sure enough their names were there dated May 27, 1858. He laughed about it and showed his wife. It seems after Harriett's death Peter G. Bowen sold the farm again in January 6, 1857 to Cassius H. Potter, who was the grandfather of the present Cassius Potter.

Peter G. Bowen who as early as the fall 1857 was recorded as residing in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, now bought the "Illenia House" there and it was long known as the Bowen House.

Here Sarah Maria Bowen was raised. Peter G. Bowen marrying a second time to a Mary "Jane" Keefe. Sarah married in Fort Atkinson James Campbell who was a druggist. Their children were Harriet, Jessamine and Frances. Jessamine later married Fred W. Bain. The compiler of this history would still like to see them.

I have hunted out the proper deeds and mortgages at the Jefferson County Courthouse at Jefferson, Wisconsin, has photocopied same and am now in detailed study of this farm period.

the generative principle of life. The columns are grand, high and massive that support the roof. Everything is covered with inscriptions,—columns, roof, walls and side apartments, beautifully carved. This temple was first built in the time of the Ptolemies, some 300 years before Christ and improved in the time of the Caesars. There was a man talking to a group about the wonderful wisdom of the Egyptians as indicated by this temple and the hieroglyphics. I could not help but put in my oar, by saying there is more real wisdom, truth and beauty in the Sermon on the Mount than could be found in any of these inscriptions, especially if we should reflect upon the horrid orgies to which this temple was devoted. One part of the worship consisted in the deflowering of young virgins by the priests at certain mysteries which came once a year. These vast structures was one way the priests had of impressing the imaginations and minds of the ignorant multitude and holding them in absolute bondage. There is another temple nearby which has not yet been exhumed from the earth. We can walk around on a level with its capitals. There are great hills of debris all around, showing that at this place was a large city of brick now reduced to heaps of dirt and broken bricks and pottery. This must have all presented a grand appearance in the day when it was all perfect and in its glory—but we cannot but say that things are better than they were for mankind. In all this work and in all these hieroglyphics there is nothing to show that the good of humanity, or the greatest good to the greatest number, was of any consideration. A boy came up and showed me a large green sheath full of grain, somewhat resembling Indian corn. I bought it and shall take it home and plant the seeds. I got some seeds in Cairo, and if I can find a single one which will benefit my country, it will be a great happiness to me. All got to the boat very happy, when there was another scene,—hundreds of boys, some girls and people had got ashore and were crying “backsheesh!” They held their shirts up to catch the coin as though modesty is unknown in these parts. Along the river the men lifting water were nearly, and some quite, naked. Some of the lifts were in four platforms, and one or two, five. The fields looking luxuriously with their green vegetation, bordered by hills of wonderfully picturesque rocks. Toward evening saw the temples. After supper visited a coffee house with the others.
